

Joe Peter Project: 685-S1

|                                                                                         |                      |                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 00:00                                                                                   | Page Reference       |                                     |
| 00:03                                                                                   | When the John Man    | hunched for fire                    |
| JP: 00:06Joe Petert'tap [note: sounds like possible break in audio]             |                      |                                     |
| 00:10                                                                                   | But the John Man     | had poured water into all the fires |
| JP: 00:14Joe Peterukuk paya                                                     |                      |                                     |
| 00:19                                                                                   | The last John Man    | was that of their aunt the crow     |
| JP: 00:23Joe Peterk'hupa t'aska chich/ <k'ak'(a)> [possible break in recording] |                      |                                     |
| 00:37                                                                                   | Notes                | Audio recording?                    |
| 00:37                                                                                   | Note: missing audio- | "it also was taken"] away           |
| 00:38                                                                                   | ukuk wəp'te/ saya    |                                     |
| 00:42                                                                                   | They walked          | about/ there                        |
| 00:45                                                                                   | t'aska hay Peter     | wa k'hupá                           |
| 00:47                                                                                   | When the John Man    | the noise of crackling of fire      |
| JP: 00:50Joe Petert'uk-tuk-tuk/ kakwa p'haya                                    |                      |                                     |
| 00:56                                                                                   | The brother said     | to the sister                       |
| 00:58                                                                                   | ukuk aloy Peter      | wawa k'hupa yaka ats                |
| 01:00                                                                                   | Do you hear          | the fire                            |
| JP: 01:03Joe Peter                                                                  |                      |                                     |
| 01:05                                                                                   | After a while        | Man crackled again                  |
| JP: 01:07Joe Peter                                                                  |                      |                                     |
| 01:10                                                                                   | They found the       | place from where the sound appeared |

|                                                                     |           |                                                                                                                       |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: †aska †'lap ukuk/ paya yaka chaku/ †uk-†uk k <sup>h</sup> anawi |           |                                                                                                                       |
| 01:18                                                               | Joe Peter | They dug in the ground and found a shell                                                                              |
| 01:21                                                               | Joe Peter | JP: †askaaa// †aska mamuk <<†uk-†uk>> k <sup>h</sup> upa  iley?  [ili?i]†aska †'lap ukuk ENDED HERE 9/15/25 |
| 01:27                                                               | Joe Peter | In the shell there was buried a coal                                                                                  |
| 01:30                                                               | Joe Peter | {shell} mi†ayt tenas-paya                                                                                             |
| 01:41                                                               | Joe Peter | "Oh," they said to each other                                                                                         |
| 01:44                                                               | Joe Peter | "†aska †'lap k <sup>h</sup> anumakwst                                                                                 |
| 01:47                                                               | Joe Peter | Our aunt has married us                                                                                               |
| 01:49                                                               | Joe Peter | JP: nisayka chich yaka mamuk-†axayam nsayka [Note: both nisayka and nsayka]                                           |
| 01:52                                                               | Joe Peter | He put the fire into the shell for us                                                                                 |
| 01:54                                                               | Joe Peter | Yaka mi†ayt ukuk p <sup>h</sup> aya k <sup>h</sup> apa ukuk {shell}                                                   |
| 01:57                                                               | Joe Peter | Now they started a fire                                                                                               |
| 01:59                                                               | Joe Peter | †ata †aska mamuk-p <sup>h</sup> aya                                                                                   |
| 02:01                                                               | Joe Peter | The next day they built a small house                                                                                 |
| 02:02                                                               | Joe Peter | ixt san yaka mamuk tənás haws                                                                                         |
| 02:08                                                               | Joe Peter | There they lived for a long time [pg. 52]                                                                             |
| 02:10                                                               | Joe Peter | Upá †aska mi†ayt  leyli  [lili]                                                                                       |
| 02:12                                                               | Joe Peter | One day a sea breeze arose                                                                                            |
| 02:14                                                               | Joe Peter | JP: ixt san yaka chaku tənás win k <sup>h</sup> apuk hayash chək [Note: use of k <sup>h</sup> apuk]                   |
| 02:16                                                               | Joe Peter | Early in the morning the man rose and went down to the beach                                                          |
| 02:23                                                               | Joe Peter | JP: tənás san ixt <t <sup>h</sup> aym> ixt san yaka/ mi†ayt uk man yaka †atuwa <k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk> chək         |
| 02:29                                                               | Joe Peter | There he found ten cedar planks                                                                                       |
|                                                                     |           |                                                                                                                       |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                        |                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: [inaudible]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                        |                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 02:54                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | [inaudible]//Joe Peter | here he found ten cedar planks                                                                                                                                                               |
| 03:00                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | yak a teta <sup>h</sup> ta <sup>h</sup> lam <<{um}/ukuk>> hayash/ laplash                                                                                                                    |
| 03:08                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | and he said to his sister                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 03:10                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | opi> yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka ats                                                                                                                                                   |
| 03:12                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | John Marr              | have found ten planks                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 03:14                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | mayka ta <sup>h</sup> lam laplash                                                                                                                                                            |
| 03:16                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | John Marr              | each ten fathoms long                                                                                                                                                                        |
| JP: ixt// xt ta <sup>h</sup> lam <<ukuk lili/ila yu <sup>h</sup> ..>> yu <sup>h</sup> qat [Note: maybe instead of "lili" JP might be saying lil? or leyl? far, far off, further03:19 Joe Peteraway in Cowlitz, or struggling to remember itana (for fathom)]ENDED HERE 7/21/25 |                        |                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 03:24                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | John Marr              | they went to the beach                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 03:26                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | aska ta <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk// hayash [tsək] [chək]                                                                                                                                         |
| 03:30                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | John Marr              | <followed> them up to their house [Book says "hailed" instead of "followed", Joe responds with translation for "hailed"]                                                                     |
| 03:32                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | uk lya <sup>h</sup> haws                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 03:35                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | John Marr              | and the brother made a large house                                                                                                                                                           |
| 03:37                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | uk alye <sup>h</sup> mamuk hayash haws                                                                                                                                                       |
| 03:40                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | John Marr              | then the brother said                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 03:43                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | alta/ yaka wawa yaka <aw/ats>                                                                                                                                                                |
| 03:45                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | John Marr              | what kind of blanket will you make for your son?                                                                                                                                             |
| 03:49                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              |                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 03:57                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | John Marr              | the brother went down to the beach                                                                                                                                                           |
| 04:19                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Joe Peter              | JP: q <sup>h</sup> at. q <sup>h</sup> ata pasisi at <sup>h</sup> qi mayka mamuk k <sup>h</sup> upa mayka tēnas//tenas-san yaka ta <sup>h</sup> twa k <sup>h</sup> upa <<uk>> hayash-chək |

|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: there he found two small sea otters |                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| JP: 04:31                               | k <sup>h</sup> upá yaka t'ɬap/ makwst [tənáas] [tənas]/ <hayash-> chəkJoe Peter[hayash-chək] kəlakəla                                                                    |  |
| 04:37                                   | he said/ John Marr                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| 04:39                                   | yaka yawa Peter                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| 04:40                                   | h, my John Marr                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
| 04:42                                   | // naya Peter haska tənas                                                                                                                                                        |  |
| 04:53                                   | this will John Marr blanket                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| 04:55                                   | ukuk a John Peter yaka// <pas..> pasisi                                                                                                                                          |  |
| 05:00                                   | he took John Marr to the house                                                                                                                                                   |  |
| 05:02                                   | yaka John Peter k <sup>h</sup> upa haws                                                                                                                                          |  |
| 05:04                                   | and said John Marr sister                                                                                                                                                        |  |
| 05:05                                   | pi> yaka Peter k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka ats                                                                                                                                       |  |
| 05:07                                   | found John Marr otters                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| 05:09                                   | yaka John Peter kəlakəla <kla..> hayash-chək kəlakəla                                                                                                                            |  |
| 05:13                                   | then said John Marr glad                                                                                                                                                         |  |
| 05:15                                   | yaka John Peter sh-təmtəm                                                                                                                                                        |  |
| 05:19                                   | he brother John Marr                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| 05:20                                   | yaka John Peter aw                                                                                                                                                               |  |
| 05:22                                   | what said John Marr you going to make for your son?                                                                                                                              |  |
| JP: 05:26                               | q <sup>h</sup> ata aɬqi/ q <sup>h</sup> ata aɬqi mayka mamuk <[lásup] [lasup]>Joe Peter<<k <sup>h</sup> upa/ukuk/k <sup>h</sup> apuk/k <sup>h</sup> upa uk>> mayka tənas |  |
| 05:32                                   | the John Marr he arose and went down to the beach                                                                                                                                |  |
| JP: 05:35                               | tənas-san yaka/ yaka mitxwit <pi> yaka ɬatwa <<k <sup>h</sup> upa>>Joe Peterukuk hayash-chək                                                                             |  |
| 05:40                                   | he found John Marr lion                                                                                                                                                          |  |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                             |           |                                                                                                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: yaka t'ɬap ukuk hayash/ -chək [hayash-chək] kəlakəla [Note: kəlakəla generic use for animal? see Wishram texts]                                                                                         |           |                                                                                                                                     |
| 05:49                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | He skin cut it                                                                                                                      |
| 05:51                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | Yaka mamuk-ɬaq ukuk yaka skin                                                                                                       |
| 05:54                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | When they boiled it                                                                                                                 |
| 05:55                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | Yaka mamuk-ɬaq'up yaka mamuk/ -lip <sup>h</sup> lip [mamuk-lip <sup>h</sup> lip]                                                    |
| 05:58                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | Every day he went down to the beach                                                                                                 |
| 06:00                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | K'anawi-ɬatwa <<k <sup>h</sup> upa>> ukuk hayash-chək kakwa                                                                         |
| 06:04                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | Every time he found// two sea otters                                                                                                |
| 06:10                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | JP: k <sup>h</sup> anawi-t <sup>h</sup> aym/ k <sup>h</sup> anawi.. kwanisəm yaka t'ɬap ukuk/ kakwamakwst/ hayash-chək kəlakəla |
| 06:18                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | Heir hqabe Mas full of sea otter skins                                                                                              |
| 06:21                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | K'anawi-ɬatwa yaka hayu->> t'ɬap ukuk <yaka> skin                                                                                   |
| 06:24                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | He morning he went to the beach                                                                                                     |
| 05:43                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter |                                                                                                                                     |
| 06:26                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | It ten yaka ɬatwa k <sup>h</sup> upá                                                                                                |
| 06:29                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | There was a whale                                                                                                                   |
| 06:31                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | ɬupá hayash-samən                                                                                                                   |
| 06:33                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | When he got back to his sister and cried                                                                                            |
| 06:36                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | Yaka k <sup>h</sup> upá yaka ats pi yaka wawa/ yaka k <sup>h</sup> lay                                                              |
| 06:40                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | He whale on the beach                                                                                                               |
| 06:42                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | Hayash-samən hayash-samən k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk chək                                                                              |
| 06:45                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | His sister said                                                                                                                     |
| 06:49                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Joe Peter | Yaka ats wawa                                                                                                                       |
| 06:51                                                                                                                                                                                                       | John Marr | Every night the people on the other side of the ocean/ send us food"                                                                |
| JP: k <sup>h</sup> anawi/ k <sup>h</sup> anawi pulak <sup>h</sup> li ukuk tilixam inatay k <sup>h</sup> upa uk/ chəkɬaska <iskam> mash inatay/ < məq'wməq'w  [mək <sup>h</sup> mək]> k <sup>h</sup> upa |           |                                                                                                                                     |

|                                                                                                                                                |              |                               |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-------------------------------|
| nsayka [Note: one syllable "uk" and possible Salish form of məkʰmək]                                                                           |              |                               |
| 07:04                                                                                                                                          | those people | those people love me"         |
| JP: ukuk/ ukuk skukum-tilixam/ anqati-tilixam †aska hayash-tiki07:08 Joe Peternayka                                                    |              |                               |
| 07:14                                                                                                                                          | my boy       | my boy came"                  |
| 07:17                                                                                                                                          | ayka         | ayka papa chaku               |
| 07:20                                                                                                                                          | how          | the male"                     |
| 07:22                                                                                                                                          | ayka         | ayka †q'up ukuk/ hayash-samən |
| 07:26                                                                                                                                          | when he      | he cut it                     |
| 07:29                                                                                                                                          | ta ya        | ta ya mamuk-†q'up             |
| 07:32                                                                                                                                          | and they     | up the meat                   |
| 07:35                                                                                                                                          | aska         | aska/ i†wəli kʰupá            |
| 06:56                                                                                                                                          | Joe Peter    |                               |
| JM: now the crow made herself ready to look for her nephew and her07:39 John Marrniece                                                 |              |                               |
| JP: alta ukuk <sk'ak'a?> yaka hayu-/ nanich kʰupa yaka/ [Note:07:44 Joe PeterCowlitz "sk'ak'a?" for crow? maybe he is saying sk'akəla] |              |                               |
| 07:49                                                                                                                                          | she          | her canoe and paddled across  |
| JP: <<{oh}/ya>> mash mash yaka/ kənim kʰupa uk chək yaka07:52 Joe Peter†atwa inatay                                                    |              |                               |
| 07:58                                                                                                                                          | ailing       | the                           |
| 08:02                                                                                                                                          | ans          | ish-kʰilay                    |
| 08:05                                                                                                                                          | when she     | most crossed the bay          |
| 08:07                                                                                                                                          | ik-sa        | ayka/ inatay ukuk hayash-chək |
| 08:18                                                                                                                                          | he           | house                         |
| 08:19                                                                                                                                          | ka           | ayash-haws                    |

|                          |                                                                                                                                        |                                                    |
|--------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| JM: and saw smoke rising |                                                                                                                                        |                                                    |
| 08:17                    | yaka nanich Peter                                                                                                                      | chaku-ɬax kʰupá                                    |
| 08:26                    | he went to                                                                                                                             | Marr                                               |
| 08:27                    | yaka ɬatwa Peter                                                                                                                       |                                                    |
| 08:28                    | when she was                                                                                                                           | near the shore                                     |
| 08:34                    | yaka wiles Peter                                                                                                                       | kʰupa ilí? [note: second syllable stress and í=ey] |
| 08:37                    | he saw John                                                                                                                            | Marr sitting on the roof of the house              |
| 08:38                    | yaka nanich Peter                                                                                                                      | yi/ miɬayt kʰupa saxali ukuk haws                  |
| 08:39                    | the latter John                                                                                                                        | Marr his sister                                    |
| 08:37                    | yaka wiles Peter                                                                                                                       | kʰupa yaka aaats                                   |
| 08:40                    | when he saw                                                                                                                            | the crow coming                                    |
| 08:44                    | JP: yaka nanich/ q'hənchi yaka nanich ukuk <sk'ak'a?> chaku [note: Joe Peter Cowlitz "sk'ak'a?" for crow? maybe he is saying sk'akəla] |                                                    |
| 08:46                    | our aunt John                                                                                                                          | Marr said us is coming there                       |
| 08:52                    | JP: nsay.. nsayka chich aɬqi yaka/ [mak-ɬaxayam] (n)sayka pus yaka chaku [note: "mak-" for "mamuk-ɬaxayam"]                            |                                                    |
| 09:02                    | he arrived John                                                                                                                        | Marr saw a whale on the beach                      |
| 09:05                    | JP: yaka/ yaka q'u? pi yaka nanich ukuk/ hayash-samən/ kʰupa// wik-saya kʰupa <uk> chək                                                |                                                    |
| 09:16                    | he saw John                                                                                                                            | Marr whale                                         |
| 09:18                    | yaka nanich Peter                                                                                                                      | ukuk hayash-samən                                  |
| 09:26                    | he went John                                                                                                                           | Marr whale and pulled at the meat                  |
| 09:24                    | JP: yaka nanich ɬatwa <<mamuk../ukuk>> hayash-samən yaka/ mamuk-hal ukuk iɬwəli                                                        |                                                    |
| 09:29                    | when he John                                                                                                                           | Marr said                                          |
| JP:                      | alta ukuk yaka/ [JM: come up to the house]  tənes  [tənas] wawa                                                                        |                                                    |

|                                                   |                                |                                                                                          |
|---------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| "chaku k <sup>h</sup> upa haws" NOTE: SPLIT |                                |                                                                                          |
| JP: 3609:36                                   | Joe PeterJohn Marr         | come up to the house// why do you touch that rotten meat                                 |
| JP: 4209:42                                   | Joe Peterhəm/ hə́m-itwə́li | lulu <ukuk> <<mayka>> iskam ukuk <<həm..>>/ ukuk                                         |
| JP: 4809:48                                   | John Marr                      | she replied "I> only looked at it"                                                       |
| JP: 5009:50                                   | Joe Peter                      | bo k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka nanich yaxka                                                  |
| JP: 5409:54                                   | John Marr                      | and she went up to the house                                                             |
| JP: 5509:55                                   | Joe Peter                      | pi> yaka k <sup>h</sup> upa haws                                                         |
| JP: 5709:57                                   | John Marr                      | she entered and saw that it was full of whale meat                                       |
| JP: 10:0110:01                                | Joe Peteritwə́li           | yaka k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka nanich/ yaka pat <sup>h</sup> ukuk/ hayash-samən            |
| JP: 10:0810:08                                | John Marr                      | she went up to the child                                                                 |
| JP: 10:1009:30                                | Joe PeterJoe Peter         | yaka k <sup>h</sup> upa (ukuk)/(k <sup>h</sup> upa uk)>> tənás                           |
| JP: 1210:12                                   | John Marr                      | and wanted to take it in her arms                                                        |
| JP: 1510:15                                   | Joe Peter                      | yaka tija k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka lema                                                   |
| JP: 1710:17                                   | John Marr                      | but the child began to cry                                                               |
| JP: 10:1910:19                                | Joe Peter"munk"?]          | ukuk tənás yaka [mu(h)k-] [mamuk-] k <sup>h</sup> lay [Note: suggesting                  |
| JP: 2110:21                                   | John Marr                      | the sister said                                                                          |
| JP: 2310:23                                   | Joe Peter                      | ukuk alye k <sup>h</sup> upa wawa                                                        |
| JP: 2510:25                                   | John Marr                      | h he said of your tears                                                                  |
| JP: 2710:27                                   | Joe Peter                      | yaka h <sup>h</sup> upa k <sup>h</sup> upa mayka// chək k <sup>h</sup> upa mayka siyaxus |
| JP: 3210:32                                   | John Marr                      | they gave her water and she washed her face                                              |
| JP: 3510:35                                   | Joe Peter                      | pat <sup>h</sup> achək pi yaka wash yaka/ siyaxus k <sup>h</sup> anawi                   |
| JP: 3910:39                                   | John Marr                      | then she tried again to take him                                                         |
| JP: 4110:41                                   | Joe Peter                      | yaka tija k <sup>h</sup> upa wəxt                                                        |

|           |                                                                                                                                 |  |
|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM:       | but still he cried                                                                                                              |  |
| JP:46     | yaka k <sup>h</sup> ay Peter                                                                                                    |  |
| JM:48     | he sister said                                                                                                                  |  |
| JP:50     | yaka a <sup>h</sup> se Peter                                                                                                    |  |
| JM:52     | he is afraid of your breath                                                                                                     |  |
| JP:54     | yaka k <sup>h</sup> ay Peter ya mayka win [note: maybe "wint"?]                                                                 |  |
| JM:56     | then she took water and cleaned her mouth                                                                                       |  |
| JP:59     | yaka is <sup>h</sup> er Peter pi yaka mamuk-// wash yaka lapush                                                                 |  |
| JM:04     | and together again                                                                                                              |  |
| JP:08     | hayu Joe Peter yaxka wəxt [note: is this really "hayu-"]                                                                        |  |
| JM:09     | but still John said                                                                                                             |  |
| JP:14     | pi> y <sup>h</sup> ay Peter                                                                                                     |  |
| JM:15     | then the sister said to her aunt                                                                                                |  |
| JP:41     | ukuk a <sup>h</sup> se Peter wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka chich                                                                 |  |
| JM:20     | do you think he is a human being                                                                                                |  |
| JP: 11:26 | mayka na tilixam yaka tili.. ya.. mayka na təmtəm yaka tilixamukuk Joe Peter                                                |  |
| JM:32     | look here John he is the> son of a supernatural being                                                                           |  |
| JP: 11:35 | mayka nanich yakwa/ k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka// tənəs k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk hayash11:35 Joe Peterskukum-tilixam/ anqati |  |
| JM:42     | they gave him that whale to eat                                                                                                 |  |
| JP:46     | yaxka Joe Peter misayka ukuk/ hayash-samən i <sup>h</sup> wəli                                                                  |  |
| JM:50     | oh said John Maw                                                                                                                |  |
| JP:52     | yaka Joe Peter ukuk sk'ak'a?                                                                                                    |  |
| JM:54     | they brought her whale meat for her                                                                                             |  |
| JP:01     | yaka Joe Peter lip <sup>h</sup> lip ukuk hayash-samən i <sup>h</sup> wəli pus yaxka                                             |  |

|                    |           |                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: and she ate it |           |                                                                                                                                              |
| J2:06              | Joe Peter |                                                                                                                                              |
| J2:08              | John Marr | after she finished eating she went home                                                                                                      |
| JP: 12:11          | Joe Peter | yaka k <sup>h</sup> upit-mək <sup>h</sup> mək pi yaka ʔatwa  k'ilápa(y)  [k'ilapay] k <sup>h</sup> upayaka haws ENDED HERE 9/20/25 |
| J2:15              | John Marr | they gave her two pieces of blubber                                                                                                          |
| J2:17              | Joe Peter | ʔaska  mənkwst  [makwst]                                                                                                                     |
| J2:20              | John Marr | which she put into her mat                                                                                                                   |
| JP: 12:24          | Joe Peter | ʔaska  ma(m)uk-  [mamuk-] miʔayt pi yaka  ma(m)uk- [mamuk-] miʔayt k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka lisak                                         |
| J2:32              | John Marr | the crowd went across the bay                                                                                                                |
| J2:34              | Joe Peter | ukuk ʔaska ʔatwa inatay k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk hayash-chək                                                                                  |
| J2:38              | John Marr | when she approached// the town                                                                                                               |
| J2:43              | Joe Peter | chak k <sup>h</sup> upa uk hayash/ hayu-haws [Note: clear "uk"]                                                                              |
| J2:47              | John Marr | the crowd                                                                                                                                    |
| J2:48              | Joe Peter | ʔaska k <sup>h</sup> upa                                                                                                                     |
| J2:49              | John Marr | my sister's children                                                                                                                         |
| J2:51              | Joe Peter | ʔaska ʔatwa tilixə../ tənəs k <sup>h</sup> anawi                                                                                             |
| J2:55              | John Marr | my sister's children                                                                                                                         |
| J2:57              | Joe Peter | ʔaska ʔatwa tənəs k <sup>h</sup> anawi                                                                                                       |
| J2:59              | John Marr | birds flew from <you> many times                                                                                                             |
| J3:04              | Joe Peter | ʔakə ʔatwa chaku-ʔax k <sup>h</sup> upa hayu// <<thayms/haws>>                                                                               |
| J3:08              | John Marr | eagles were eating you/// [footsteps] my sister's children                                                                                   |
| J3:58              | Joe Peter | ʔaska ʔatwa tənəs k <sup>h</sup> anawi                                                                                                       |
| J4:01              | John Marr | the gull was eating you                                                                                                                      |
| J4:03              | Joe Peter | ukuk ʔatwa// ukuk chək-kəlakəla ʔaska mək <sup>h</sup> mək mayka                                                                             |

|                            |                          |                                                                                 |
|----------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: ravens were eating you |                          |                                                                                 |
| J4:14                      | ukuk/ Joe Peter          | kəlakəla ʔaska məkʰmək mayka                                                    |
| J4:15                      | ow sh John Marr          | still nearer the town                                                           |
| JP: 14:19                  | ukuk/ Joe Peter          | <yak(a)> chaku wik-saya kʰupa haws//                                            |
|                            | hay.. hayu-hayash haws   |                                                                                 |
| J4:26                      | he bird Joe Marr         | sitting outside and saw her coming                                              |
| JP: 14:29                  | ukuk/ Joe Peter          | kəlakəla ukuk kəlakəla ʔaska miʔayt ʔaxani pi ʔaska                             |
|                            | nanich yaxka chaku       |                                                                                 |
| J4:35                      | h my sister Marr         | children                                                                        |
| JP: 14:38                  | o kʰanawi Joe Peter      | nayka tenas.. nayka tənəs yaka tenas [slip for "nayka                           |
|                            | ats yaka tenas"?]        |                                                                                 |
| J4:41                      | birds fly John Marr      | from you                                                                        |
| J4:44                      | kəlakəla Joe Peter       | <ʔaku-ʔaxani> kʰupa mayka                                                       |
| J4:49                      | rows John Marr           | ing you                                                                         |
| JP: 4:49                   | sk'ak'a Joe Peter        | [tsxi] >> məkʰmək mayka                                                         |
| J4:51                      | hen the bird Joe Marr    | > [note: sounds like "shot him"]                                                |
| J4:54                      | <{y Joe Peter            | >>/ kəlakəla yaka p'u yaxka                                                     |
| J4:58                      | id you John Marr         |                                                                                 |
| J5:00                      | ayka Joe Peter           | ich [note: question particle]                                                   |
| J5:02                      | he name Joe Marr         | crow                                                                            |
| J5:03                      | aka.. Joe Peter          | nim ukuk/ sk'ak'a                                                               |
| J5:07                      | he name Joe Marr         | crow                                                                            |
| JP: 15:10                  | yaka nim ukuk/ Joe Peter | [Note: ambiguous "its name is crow" or just abbreviation of previous response?] |
| J5:13                      | ow sh John Marr          | and went up to the house                                                        |
| J5:15                      | ta yaka Joe Peter        | ʔayt pi yaka ʔatwa kʰupa haws                                                   |

|                                                                        |           |                                                                                                                      |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: now all the people came into the crow's house                      |           |                                                                                                                      |
| JP: 15:22haws                                                      | Joe Peter |                                                                                                                      |
| JM: 27                                                                 | John Marr | how she had found her sister's children                                                                              |
| JP: 15:31k <sup>h</sup> anawi                                      | Joe Peter | <ukuk> <<kəlakəla>> †aska t'†ap yaka ats yaka tənəs/                                                                 |
| JM: 36                                                                 | John Marr | she replied that                                                                                                     |
| JP: 36                                                                 | Joe Peter | k <sup>h</sup> anawi-ikta                                                                                            |
| JM: 50                                                                 | John Marr | went                                                                                                                 |
| JP: 52                                                                 | Joe Peter | atay                                                                                                                 |
| JM: 55                                                                 | John Marr | and found                                                                                                            |
| JP: 15:57                                                              | Joe Peter | <<pi>> yaka t'†ap †aska <<yaɣk..>> †aska i†wəli [note: "i†wəli" pronunciation actually i†wəle/i†wəlo/i†əwil/i†əwəl?] |
| JM: 09                                                                 | John Marr | all of them ate them                                                                                                 |
| JP: 06                                                                 | Joe Peter | kəlakəla mək <sup>h</sup> mək †aska                                                                                  |
| JM: 16                                                                 | John Marr | all kinds of birds ate them                                                                                          |
| JP: 19                                                                 | Joe Peter | kəlakəla mək <sup>h</sup> mək †aska                                                                                  |
| JM: 22                                                                 | John Marr | after she had finished                                                                                               |
| JP: 25                                                                 | Joe Peter | ku-k <sup>h</sup> upit                                                                                               |
| JM: 29                                                                 | John Marr | he was the first to leave the house                                                                                  |
| JP: 37                                                                 | Joe Peter | yaka/ iləp mash ukuk haws                                                                                            |
| JM: 41                                                                 | John Marr | he went to the near of the house where he stayed                                                                     |
| JP: 44                                                                 | Joe Peter | mi†ayt                                                                                                               |
| JM: 48                                                                 | John Marr | was silent                                                                                                           |
| JP: 51                                                                 | Joe Peter | hilu-ikta yaka wawa                                                                                                  |
| JM: robin, who was her deceased/ husband's brother, remained with her. |           |                                                                                                                      |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |           |  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|--|
| robin was her dead brother's husband, stayed with her                                                                                                                                                                     |           |  |
| JP: <<ukuk swisq'q' kələkəla>> yaka// kapxu yaka/// yaka aw yaka kapxu yaka miɬayt kʰupá [Note: possible Salish word for robin; 17:06 Joe Peter Upper Chehalis " swisq'q' or Cowlitz s/witq' "] Ended here 10/07/25 |           |  |
| JM:15 They sat on opposite sides of the fire                                                                                                                                                                              | John Marr |  |
| JP: ɬaska miɬayt inatay-inatay kʰupa ukuk paya [note: 17:19 Joe Peter "inatay-inatay" sounds intentional]                                                                                                                 |           |  |
| JM:22 She had five children                                                                                                                                                                                               | John Marr |  |
| JP:25 yaka miɬayt wənəm [qwinəm] tənəs                                                                                                                                                                                    | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:27 then she told him everything in a low voice                                                                                                                                                                         | John Marr |  |
| JP:30 ɬaxka wəpəɬanawi-ikta kʰupa yaxka/ wik-hayash wawa                                                                                                                                                                  | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:35 and blubbered outside                                                                                                                                                                                               | John Marr |  |
| JP:40 ukuk ixtəla yak(a) kəmtəks yaka wawa/ ɬaxani                                                                                                                                                                        | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:56 She pulled out the food which she had carried home                                                                                                                                                                  | John Marr |  |
| JP: yaka mamuk-ɬax ukuk məkʰmək yaka mamuk-k'ilapay 18:07 Joe Peter kʰupa-haws                                                                                                                                            |           |  |
| JM:12 and gave to her children and to the robin                                                                                                                                                                           | John Marr |  |
| JP: yaka patɬach kʰupa yaka/ tənəs kʰanawi <<kʰupa ixt>> 18:18 Joe Peter kələkəla///                                                                                                                                      |           |  |
| JM:26 Ber youges daughter                                                                                                                                                                                                 | John Marr |  |
| <<swis(q'q') kələkəla>> [Note: possible Salish word for robin; 18:24 Joe Peter Upper Chehalis " swisq'q' or Cowlitz s/witq' "]                                                                                            |           |  |
| JM:25 Ber youges daughter choked while eating the blubber                                                                                                                                                                 | John Marr |  |
| JP: <<...>> tənəs yaka tənəs yaka chaku-/ q'wetɬ kʰupa yaka likʰu/ 18:29 Joe Peter ukuk ixt yaka məkʰmək [Possible distortion at beginning?]                                                                              |           |  |

|                   |                                                                                                                                                |                                            |
|-------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| JM: then the bird |                                                                                                                                                |                                            |
| JP:41             | ukuk taya Petakakela                                                                                                                           |                                            |
| JM:42             | who had been peeking through the chinks in the wall                                                                                            |                                            |
| JP:46             | nanich bek Peteruk(uk) tawap k'hupa-ukuk// haws                                                                                                |                                            |
| JM:51             | appeared John Marr                                                                                                                             | she slapped her stomach                    |
| JP:54             | yaka chak Peter pi yaka q'wəɬ k'hupa yaka/  qwat <sup>h</sup> in  [k'wəɬ <sup>h</sup> in]                                                      |                                            |
| JM:59             | the piece of meat                                                                                                                              | the meat flew out of her mouth             |
| JP: 19:02         | <<{d'you mean}>>/ tunus hayash-samənn itwəli chaku-taxJoe Peterk'hupa yaka lapush                                                      |                                            |
| JM:08             | the bird John Marr                                                                                                                             | and showed it to the people in the village |
| JP: 19:12         | ukuk tayi ukuk hayash-kəlakəla yaka iskam yaka mash k'hupaJoe Peterk <sup>h</sup> anawi uk tilixam k'hupa ukuk hayu-haws// hayash-haws |                                            |
| JM:21             | he said John Marr                                                                                                                              |                                            |
| JP:23             | yaka wəle Peter                                                                                                                                |                                            |
| JM:24             | do you see? Marr                                                                                                                               |                                            |
| JP:25             | ta na yaka nanich                                                                                                                              |                                            |
| JM:27             | the crow John Marr                                                                                                                             |                                            |
| JP:28             | ukuk sɔk Peter ka pattach nayka mək <sup>h</sup> mək                                                                                           |                                            |
| JM:31             | he went John Marr                                                                                                                              | houses showing it around                   |
| JP: 19:34         | yaka <munk>-tatwa k'hupa tən haws <<ya>> mamuk-nanichJoe Peterk <sup>h</sup> anawi                                                     |                                            |
| JM:38             | after some time Marr                                                                                                                           | it grew dark                               |
| JP:41             | qi al tae Peter chaku-pulak <sup>h</sup> li                                                                                                    |                                            |
| JM: 19:43         | the people were very angry [note: JM misreads "hungry" as "angry" and JP translates "angry"]John Marr                                      |                                            |
| JP:46             | k <sup>h</sup> anawi Peter tilixam taska hayu-saliks                                                                                           |                                            |

|                                                    |                                                                                                                                                 |  |
|----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: then the bird said to the chief of the town    |                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| JP: ukuk19:52ukuk hayu-                    | kəlakəla yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa uk tayi k <sup>h</sup> upa uk t <sup>h</sup> awn/ k <sup>h</sup> upaJoe Peterhaws                 |  |
| JM: oh chief19:58whale meat                | the house of the young man whom we deserted is full ofJohn Marr                                                                             |  |
| JP: ukuk/20:12tilixam k <sup>h</sup> anawi | // o ukuk tayi ukuk tayi/ k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk haws <k <sup>h</sup> anawi uk>Joe Petertaska mash ukuk/ <<hayu->> hayash-samən iṭwəli |  |
| JM: 20:24superhuman                            | being loved his sisterJohn Marr                                                                                                             |  |
| JP: ukuk20:27taska tiki                    | hayash <an..> hayash tayi <an..> tilixam anqati tilixamJoe Peteryaka/ ats                                                               |  |
| 19:49                                              | John Marr                                                                                                                                       |  |