

Joe Peter Project: 694-S1

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
00:20	John Marr	JM: he reached still another prairie	[JM-Notes] [NOTE] (pg. 170)
00:22	Joe Peter	JP: yaka ɬax kʰupa ixt ɬush-iliʔi
00:25	John Marr	JM: the third one
00:26	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk ɬun
00:28	John Marr	JM: one half of it burned
00:30	Joe Peter	JP: ixt sitkum ukuk paya yaka {on} paya
00:33	John Marr	JM: he took one of his buckets and emptied it
00:35	Joe Peter	JP: ixt yaka kitɬən yaka iskam pi yaka mamuk uk/ wax kʰanawi
00:40	John Marr	JM: he took one more bucket and emptied half of it
00:42	Joe Peter	JP: yaka iskam ixt yaka/ kitɬən yaka mamuk-wax sitkum
00:47	John Marr	JM: then he reached the woods on one other side of the prairie
00:50	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka ɬatwa limulo {stik} yawa inatay kʰupa uk ɬush-iliʔi
00:55	John Marr	JM: now he had only two buckets and one-half left
00:58	Joe Peter	JP: alta kʰupit makwst pi sitkum yaka/ chək/ kʰupá
01:02	John Marr	JM: he reached another prairie which was almost totally on fire
01:06	Joe Peter	JP: yaka q'uʔ kʰupa ixt ɬush-iliʔi alta wik-saya kʰanawi yaka paya ukuk
01:11	John Marr	JM: he took one half a bucket and emptied it
01:14	Joe Peter	JP: yaka iskam sitkum yaká kitɬən yaka mamuk-wax ukuk
01:18	John Marr	JM: he took one more bucket
01:19	Joe Peter	JP: ixt wəxt yaka kitɬən yaka iskam
01:22	John Marr	JM: now only one bucket was left
01:25	Joe Peter	JP: kʰupit ixt yaka kitɬən alta miɬayt
01:28	John Marr	JM: he reached another prairie

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
01:30	Joe Peter	JP: yaka q'uʔ wəxt kʰupá ixt ʔush-iliʔi
01:33	John Marr	JM: which was all on fire
01:35	Joe Peter	JP: kʰanawi <alta> ukuk <yaka> paya
01:37	John Marr	JM: he poured out his bucket
01:39	Joe Peter	JP: yaka wəx alta wəxt ukuk kitʔən
01:42	John Marr	JM: when he nearly came across, he emptied his bucket
01:46	Joe Peter	JP: yaka wik-saya chaku-inatay yawa alta yaka kʰanawi alta yaka chək yaka wəx
01:51	John Marr	JM: he took off his bear {skin} blanket and beat the fire
01:54	Joe Peter	JP: yaka <munk/mamuk>-ʔax ukuk yaka pasisi alta pi yaka p'əq-p'əq ukuk paya
01:59	John Marr	JM: the whole bear {skin} blanket was burnt
02:01	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk/ it/ ukuk itsxut-pasisi alta kʰanawi yaka chaku-paya
02:05	John Marr	JM: his hair caught fire
02:09	Joe Peter	JP: yaká/ yaqsu kʰanawi chaku-paya
02:12	John Marr	JM: and he was burnt
02:14	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka chaku-paya yaxka
02:16	John Marr	JM: now that bird was dead
02:18	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka miməlus ukuk kəlákəla	[JP-Notes] [LING] miməlus [[miməlust]]
02:21	John Marr	JM: when it was growing dark he came to his sister
02:25	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka chaku-pulakʰli <alta> yaka q'uʔ kʰupa yaka ats
02:28	John Marr	JM: ah, my brother is dead
02:30	Joe Peter	JP: alta uk nayka aw yaka miməlust
02:37	John Marr	JM: she said to him
02:39	Joe Peter	JP: yaka wawa kʰupa yaxka
02:50	John Marr	JM: now all the things you said you see are not true

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
02:54	Joe Peter	JP: alta ukuk k ^h anawi-ikta mayka wawa mayka nanich alta wik yaka kakwa-dlet
02:59	John Marr	JM: these are not the same canoes he said
03:03	Joe Peter	JP: yaka wawa k ^h anawi ukuk k ^h anim wik yaḵka ukuk k ^h anim, ḵluyma ṭaska
03:08	John Marr	JM: the others had holes and were moss grown
03:11	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk <ixt> ya/ ukuk ḵluyma yaka miṭayt ṭḵwap-ṭḵwap k ^h anawi
03:16	John Marr	JM: he said
03:16	Joe Peter	JP: yaka wawa
03:18	John Marr	JM: you are dead now therefore you see differently
03:20	Joe Peter	JP: mayka miməlust alta kakupu mayka nanich ḵluyma
03:24	John Marr	JM: now she carried her brother across to the other side
03:28	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka <hal> k ^h upa yaka aw yawa inatay
03:32	John Marr	JM: he saw the people
03:34	Joe Peter	JP: yaka nanich ukuk tilixam
03:36	John Marr	JM: they sang they played ihtlukum
03:38	Joe Peter	JP: nayka nanich ukuk tilixam ṭaska hayu-iṭkuma alta yawa
03:43	John Marr	JM: they played dice with beaver teeth
03:46	Joe Peter	JP: ṭaska hayu-hihi k ^h upa-ukuk anqati ina yaka lita
03:50	John Marr	JM: the women played their ihtlukum
03:54	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk ṭuchmən ṭaska iṭkuma wəḵt
03:56	John Marr	JM: they played hoops
03:58	Joe Peter	JP: ṭaska mamuk ṭaska mamuk/ -hihi k ^h upa ukuk luʔluʔ {stik}
04:03	John Marr	JM: they played dice with 10 disks
04:05	Joe Peter	JP: ṭaska ṭaska mamuk wəḵt/ ṭaska mamuk-hihi <<ukuk k ^h upa uk taṭlam {um} mamuk..ukuk luʔ/ luʔluʔ yaka>> lita <uk> ina

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
04:13	John Marr	JM: they played wakak ^h uyi/ waka/ k ^h uyi/ it's a game
04:30	Joe Peter	JP: †aska mamuk-hihi ukuk wagak ^h uyi
04:34	John Marr	JM: further on there they sang the conjurer's song
04:39	Joe Peter	JP: tənəs-saya yawa kikwəli †aska mamuk {sing} ukuk paya ukuk paya yaka <wawa/aw>
04:46	John Marr	JM: he wanted to go to these singers
04:51	Joe Peter	JP: yaka tiki †atwa <k ^h upa-ukuk> q ^h a †aska hayu mamuk {sing}
04:54	John Marr	JM: he tried to shout
04:56	Joe Peter	JP: yaka tiki k ^h liyi
04:58	John Marr	JM: but he was laughed at
04:59	Joe Peter	JP: bət k ^h anawi †aska ma<m>uk-hihi yaḵka
05:02	John Marr	JM: he went to his brother-in-law's house
05:05	Joe Peter	JP: yaka †atwa k ^h upa yaka <<...>> yaka aw yaka {haws} yawa	[JP-Notes] [?] [NOTE] stutter
05:10	John Marr	JM: their chief was his sister's husband
05:13	Joe Peter	JP: yaka tayi yaka ats yaka {man}
05:42	John Marr	JM: there was the panther
05:45	Joe Peter	JP: yaḵka ukuk k ^h upá uk/ ukuk swawa?
05:51	John Marr	JM: he was an elk hunter
05:55	Joe Peter	JP: ya<x>ka dlet kəmtəks mamuk-kakshət mu/ mulak
05:58	John Marr	JM: every day he went hunting
06:00	Joe Peter	JP: k ^h anawi san yaka †atwa nanich
06:03	John Marr	JM: one day he found the branch of a spruce tree
06:07	Joe Peter	JP: ixt/ ixt san yaka t'†ap ukuk/ uk<uk> lima-{stik} <ukuk> hayash {stik} yawa
06:14	John Marr	JM: he twisted it and threw it under his bed
06:17	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk-†uk uk {stik} ya<<ka>> mash kikwəli k ^h upa yaka bit
06:20	John Marr	JM: it was a pretty branch

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
06:22	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk hayash †ush k ^h upa nanich
06:24	John Marr	JM: then he said
06:26	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka wawa
06:28	John Marr	JM: oh I wish you would become a {man}
06:30	Joe Peter	JP: q ^h ata/ q ^h ata <pi> wik mayka chaku-{man} mayka
06:34	John Marr	JM: the next day he went elk hunting
06:37	Joe Peter	JP: ixt ixt san wəxt yaka †atwa yawa yaka nanich mulak
06:41	John Marr	JM: In the evening he came home
06:43	Joe Peter	JP: chaku pulak ^h li yaka chaku {haws}
06:46	John Marr	JM: now he saw cedar bark lying on the ground
06:49	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka nanich ukuk kənim-{stik} k ^h upa yaka {haws} mi†ayt k ^h upa iliʔi
06:54	John Marr	JM: where do those people come from
06:57	Joe Peter	JP: q ^h a †aska chaku uk<uk> tilixam
07:00	John Marr	JM: they have been playing at disks, he said
07:04	Joe Peter	JP: †aska hayu-hihi/ †aska hayu-hihi k ^h upa ukuk <miməlust>
07:09	John Marr	JM: on the following morning he went again, elk hunting
07:17	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk ixt tənəs-san wəxt yaka †atwa-nanich mulak
07:21	John Marr	JM: in the evening he came home
07:24	Joe Peter	JP: tənəs-pulak ^h li alta yaka chaku {haws} chaku k'ilapay
07:43	John Marr	JM: now the floor of his house lay full of cedar bark
07:46	Joe Peter	JP: alta <wəxt> <<...>> kikwəli yaka chaku k ^h upá q ^h a pat† <yaka ikta yaka/ mamuk ukuk> {skin}-{stik}
07:54	John Marr	JM: and counters lay there
07:56	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk c'həm hayu-hayu k ^h upá yaka mi†ayt
07:59	John Marr	JM: he went out for a fourth time

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
08:01	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka †atwa lakt alta
08:04	John Marr	JM: he came home late in the afternoon
08:06	Joe Peter	JP: yaka chaku hayash-lili k ^h upa/ mash si<...>	[JP-Notes] [NOTE] audio cutoff/break in audio
08:10	John Marr	JM: when he reached his house he heard batons
08:12	Joe Peter	JP: yaka <q'u?> k ^h upa yaka {haws} yaka hayu/ hayu-kəmtəks <uk hayu> x̣luyma
08:17	John Marr	JM: then he became angry
08:18	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka chaku saliks
08:20	John Marr	JM: where do these people come from?
08:22	Joe Peter	JP: q ^h a †aska chaku ukuk tilixam
08:24	John Marr	JM: they always play at disks in my house
08:27	Joe Peter	JP: k ^h anawi-san ukuk <kaqəpu†> †aska hihi k ^h upa nayka {haws}	[JP-Notes] [OTL] q'p ^h uu†- Yakama word for round/spherical
08:31	John Marr	JM: he heard the noise in the house
08:34	Joe Peter	JP: yaka kəmtəks ukuk hayá k ^h upa {haws}
08:37	John Marr	JM: and the batons stopped
08:39	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk yaka aw kakwa †un	[JP-Notes] [NOTE] doesn't match with JM prompt
08:41	John Marr	JM: he arrived at home and entered
08:45	Joe Peter	JP: yaka/ <q ^h u/chaku k ^h upa> yaka {haws} yaka †atwa
08:49	John Marr	JM: now counters lay on a plank
08:52	Joe Peter	JP: alta k ^h upá <ukuk> yaka mi†ayt k ^h upa ləplash
08:55	John Marr	JM: he said
08:56	Joe Peter	JP: yaka wawa
08:58	John Marr	JM: tomorrow I shall hide and see where these people come from
09:01	Joe Peter	JP: tumala a†qi nayka ipsət yawa na...nayka nanich q ^h a uk tilixam †aska chaku
09:06	John Marr	JM: the next morning he went out
09:09	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk wəxt tənəs-san yaka †atwa †axani

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
09:12	John Marr	JM: he stayed/ he stayed near the grass near the house
09:15	Joe Peter	JP: yaka wik/ yaka miṭayt kʰupá wik-saya kʰupa tipsu kʰupa ukuk {haws}
09:20	John Marr	JM: and looked 09:20	Joe Peter	JP: yaka nanich
09:22	John Marr	JM: he did not see anybody
09:23	Joe Peter	JP: wik-ikta yaka nanich
09:26	John Marr	JM: then he heard the batons/	[JM-Notes] [NOTE] break in audio
09:27	Joe Peter	JP: <...> kəmtəks ukuk <haya>/<...> ikta <hayám wəxt> kʰupa {haws}	[JP-Notes] [NOTE] breaks in audio
09:31	John Marr	JM: he went home and looked through a hole in the wall
09:34	Joe Peter	JP: yaka ṭatwa kʰupá pi yaka nanich kʰupa ukuk ṭxwap/ yaka liplash
09:39	John Marr	JM: now there was a youth who was playing at disks
09:43	Joe Peter	JP: now alta kʰupá ukuk ixt tənəs-{man} ṭaska hayu<-s/>-hihi kʰupá
09:54	John Marr	JM: my brother calls me a branch of a spruce
09:57	Joe Peter	JP: <uk/> ukuk nayka aw yaka mash kʰupa nayka lima-{stik} <ya> wawa uk {nim} uk {stik}
10:02	John Marr	JM: my brother twisted me often
10:04	Joe Peter	JP: <...> nayka aw yaka mamuk	[JP-Notes] [?] [Note] sounds like something repeated?
10:08	John Marr	JM: then the panther entered
10:15	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk swawa yaka chaku-{haws} alta
10:18	John Marr	JM: oh my poor brother, why do you hide yourself before me?
10:22	Joe Peter	JP: ná nayka aw qʰata-<pi/pus> mayka mamuk-ipsət mayka <<hayu>> kʰupa nayka	[JP-Notes] [LING] [TEX] Use of the "na" question particle
10:27	John Marr	JM: then the youth was ashamed
10:29	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk/ ukuk tənəs-{man} yaka hayash-shim alta

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
10:32	John Marr	JM: he remained there
10:33	Joe Peter	JP: yaka miṭayt kʰupá
10:35	John Marr	JM: now the panther gave him good arrows
10:38	Joe Peter	JP: alta alta ukuk hayas swawa patṭach yaṣka hayash ṭush ka/ kalaytən
10:43	John Marr	JM: and the boy went hunting deer
10:49	Joe Peter	JP: alta ukuk tənəs {man} yaka ṭatwa nanich-mawich
10:52	John Marr	JM: then the panther said to his younger brother
10:56	Joe Peter	JP: <hmm alta> ukuk swawa yaka wawa kʰupa yaka tənəs-aw
10:59	John Marr	JM: go only this way, do not go down the river
11:03	Joe Peter	JP: mayka ṭatwa yakwa wik mayka ṭatwa yawa say-kikwəli kʰupa uk chək
11:08	John Marr	JM: he obeyed and only went up the river
11:11	Joe Peter	JP: pi alta ya kəmtəks pi yaka ṭatwa kʰupa saṣali kʰupa ukuk chək
11:15	John Marr	JM: he grew up
11:17	Joe Peter	JP: yaka chaku-hayash
11:18	John Marr	JM: one day, however, he went down the river
11:21	Joe Peter	JP: ixt san <wəxt>/ ixt san/ ixt san alta yaka ṭatwa kikwəli <ukuk/kʰupa uk> chək
11:26	John Marr	JM: he came to a prairie where he found a chicken hawk
11:32	Joe Peter	JP: yaka q'u? kʰupá kʰupa uk tənəs ṭush-ili?i qʰa ukuk/ miṭayt kəlákəla kəmtəks {mountain}
11:38	John Marr	JM: he shouted
11:40	Joe Peter	JP: yaka p'u
11:41	John Marr	JM: and hit it's wing
11:44	Joe Peter	JP: yaka q'wəṭ kʰupa yaka/ lima yawa
11:48	John Marr	JM: it fell down and ran jumping away
11:51	Joe Peter	JP: yaka t'ṭux yawa pi yaka ṭatwa/ wik-saya

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
11:54	John Marr	JM: he chased it for a long distance
11:56	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk-kuri saya yawa
11:58	John Marr	JM: then he saw a house
12:00	Joe Peter	JP: yaka nanich uk {haws}
12:02	John Marr	JM: the chicken hawk entered the same house
12:04	Joe Peter	JP: <yawa/yaka> ukuk/ kəlákəla kəmtəks {mountain} yaka miṭayt kʰupa
12:09	John Marr	JM: then he went on slowly
12:11	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka ṭatwa ṭawa
12:13	John Marr	JM: he thought
12:15	Joe Peter	JP: yaka təmtəm
12:16	John Marr	JM: oh they will kill me, I had better turn back
12:18	Joe Peter	JP: alaxti ṭaska mamuk-miməlus nayka, ṭush <na> təmtəm <mamuk>-k'ilapay	[JP-Notes] [LING] miməlus [[miməlust]]
12:22	John Marr	JM: but I like my arrow so well
12:24	Joe Peter	JP: nayka/ nayka hayash tiki nayka/ kala/ kalaytən
12:28	John Marr	JM: I must go in
12:30	Joe Peter	JP: ṭush nayka ṭatwa kʰupá
12:31	John Marr	JM: then he entered the house
12:33	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka ṭatwa-nanich kʰupá
12:35	John Marr	JM: standing at the door
12:37	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mitxwit yawa kʰupa lapʰot
12:39	John Marr	JM: the house was full of people who looked at his arrow
12:42	Joe Peter	JP: kʰanawi <uk> tilixam ṭaska <yaka> patṭ kʰupá yaka nanich yaka kalaytən
12:47	John Marr	JM: all the people looked at it
12:50	Joe Peter	JP: kʰanawi ukuk tilixam ṭaska nanich ukuk
12:53	John Marr	JM: they gave the arrow to a bird who looked at it
12:56	Joe Peter	JP: ṭaska patṭæch ukuk kalaytən kʰupa uk tənəs-{man}/ ixt {man} yaka nanich	[JP-Notes] [LING] patṭæch [[palach]]

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
13:01	John Marr	JM: then the young {man} said
13:03	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk/ ukuk tənəs-{man} yaka wawa
13:05	John Marr	JM: give me my arrow
13:07	Joe Peter	JP: patʔæch nayka kalaytən	[JP-Notes] [LING] patʔæch [[palach]]
13:09	John Marr	JM: it is not your arrow, you bad {man}
13:12	Joe Peter	JP: wik ukuk misayka, misayka kʰəltash <ukuk {man}>/ misayka mas<h>achi {man}
13:17	John Marr	JM: again the people looked at the arrow
13:20	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk tilixam ʔaska nanich <aʔqi uk> kalaytən
13:23	John Marr	JM: and they said
13:25	Joe Peter	JP: ʔaska wawa
13:26	John Marr	JM: to what chief may this arrow belong
13:30	Joe Peter	JP: ʔaksta tayi <ya> ukuk kalaytən yaka/ miʔayt
13:34	John Marr	JM: it is a good arrow
13:35	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk hayash ʔush kalaytən
13:37	John Marr	JM: and they gave it to the bird
13:40	Joe Peter	JP: ʔaska patʔæch k'ilapay <kʰupa> ukuk kəlákəla	[JP-Notes] [LING] patʔæch [[palach]]
13:43	John Marr	JM: give me my double pointed arrow
13:46	Joe Peter	JP: patʔæch nayka ukuk makwst nayka <<latet yak'isəʔ kʰanu-isəl>>	[JP-Notes] [LING] patʔæch [[palach]]
13:49	John Marr	JM: we'll take it
13:51	Joe Peter	JP: nsayka <munk>/ -iskam ukuk
13:53	John Marr	JM: then the young one/ young {man} rose and took it
13:57	Joe Peter	JP: alta ukuk ixt tənəs {man} yaka mitxwit yaka iskam
14:00	John Marr	JM: he shook himself
14:02	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk-iʔwəl yaʔka/ iʔwəli
14:05	John Marr	JM: and his body was covered with dentalia
14:07	Joe Peter	JP: yaka/ yaka/ yaka iʔwəli patʔ kʰupa ukuk hayu yak'isəʔ iktə

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
14:15	John Marr	JM: then the chicken hawk who on entering the house assumed the shape of a woman followed the chief
14:21	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk/ ukuk kəlákəla yaka kəmtəks mauʔn tilixam yaka chaku <<...>> alta yaka <<chaku-ɣluyma>>	[JP-Notes] [LING] mauʔn [[mountain]]
14:28	John Marr	JM: they went and went and went
14:31	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka ʔatwa
14:32	John Marr	JM: until he finally came to his older brother's house
14:35	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka k'oʔ kʰupa ukuk ulman ya {haws}/ ulman yaka aw
14:39	John Marr	JM: he hid himself inside
14:41	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk-ipsut yaɣka yawa ʔaxani
14:44	John Marr	JM: the old woman entered and did not see anybody
14:47	Joe Peter	JP: kʰupit ukuk lamiyay yaka ʔatwa {haws} pi wik-ʔaksta yaka nanich
14:51	John Marr	JM: she thought
14:52	Joe Peter	JP: yaka təmtəm
14:54	John Marr	JM: where may that youth have gone?
14:56	Joe Peter	JP: qʰa, qʰa uk tənəs-tilixam ʔaska ʔatwa
14:59	John Marr	JM: in the evening the panther came home
15:01	Joe Peter	JP: alta tənəs-pulakʰli <ya> uk<uk> swawa yaka chaku-k'ilapay
15:05	John Marr	JM: now there was a woman/ in <t>his house
15:08	Joe Peter	JP: alta ukuk ʔuchmən kʰupá kʰúpà yaka {haws}
15:11	John Marr	JM: he thought
15:12	Joe Peter	JP: yaka təmtəm
15:13	John Marr	JM: certainly he went down the river
15:16	Joe Peter	JP: nawitka <may> yaka ʔatwa k/ kikwəli kʰupa ukuk chək
15:19	John Marr	JM: then he married the woman

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
15:21	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka miṭayt ṭuchmən/ iskam ṭuchmən kʰupá
15:24	John Marr	JM: she thought
15:25	Joe Peter	JP: yaka təmtəm
15:26	John Marr	JM: when did that youth come home
15:29	Joe Peter	JP: qʰənchi yaxka uk tənəs-<{man}> yaka chaku-k'ilapay
15:32	John Marr	JM: on the following day she searched for him
15:34	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk <...> hayash wəxt san yaka ṭatwa kʰupa yaxka	[JP-Notes] [NOTE] possible audio break/jump between ukuk and hayash
15:38	John Marr	JM: she searched/ she turned over all the elk skins until it grew dark
15:44	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk-k'ilapay kʰanawi ukuk mulak yaka {{skin}} {until} <chaku/wik yaka> pulakʰli
15:49	John Marr	JM: she continued two days
15:50	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk kʰakwa makwst san
15:53	John Marr	JM: then she had finished all the skins on one side of the house
15:56	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka mamuk-k'ilapay kʰanawi ukuk {skin} kʰupa-ixt kʰupa ukuk {haws}
16:00	John Marr	JM: now she searched at the other side of the house
16:02	Joe Peter	JP: <alta ixt wəxt yaxka/alta yaka> mamuk-k'ilapay, mamuk-k'ilapay kʰanawi
16:07	John Marr	JM: she turned over all the elk skins
16:10	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk-k'ilapay-k'ilapay kʰanawi
16:13	John Marr	JM: finally she found him
16:15	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka t'ṭap yaxka
16:17	John Marr	JM: sleeping under the skins
16:19	Joe Peter	JP: <ya/ {uh}> musum, yaka musum {on} {top} {of} {a} ukuk/ {uh} pa/ pasisi
16:23	John Marr	JM: she took some grease and elk hoofs
16:27	Joe Peter	JP: yaka iskam <lulu> mulak yaka lipʰyi pi klis

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
16:32	John Marr	JM: she made a fire and roasted the hoofs
16:35	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk paya <alta> yaka mamuk-paya <alta> uk<uk>/ <uk> lip ^{hyi} k ^h anawi
16:40	John Marr	JM: when they were done, she pounded them
16:42	Joe Peter	JP: <yaka k ^{hu} >/ †aska k ^h upit <alta/ukuk> lep ^{hyi} yaka mamuk-/ q'wə†-q'wə† †aska
16:48	John Marr	JM: she took some soot and mixed it with hair of an elk's nose
16:51	Joe Peter	JP: yaka iskam tunus/ tunus paya {stik} k ^h anawi <†i?il> <<{to} a†qi/alta mamuk-...>> k ^h upá
16:58	John Marr	JM: now she mixed it with all/ everything else
17:02	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka mamuk-k ^h anu/ k ^h anumakwst ukuk k ^h upa k ^h anawi-ikta
17:06	John Marr	JM: when it grew dark, he awoke
17:11	Joe Peter	JP: yaka chaku-pulak ^h li alta yaka chaku-mi†ayt
17:14	John Marr	JM: now his nostrils felt sore
17:16	Joe Peter	JP: alta/ alta yaka	[JP-Notes] [NOTE] Joe doesnt finish
17:20	John Marr	JM: oh my younger brother
17:21	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka chaku-sik yaka aw "o nayka tunus-aw"	[JP-Notes] [NOTE] Joe finishes previous sentence and continues with new sentence
17:26	John Marr	JM: your nose is transformed into an elk's nose
17:30	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk mayka muq ^h sin yaka chaku <mulak> yaka muq ^h sin kakwa
17:34	John Marr	JM: oh my older brother
17:36	Joe Peter	JP: <o nax> ukuk nayka/ <aw/o> nayka aw
17:40	John Marr	JM: hoofs are growing on my feet
17:42	Joe Peter	JP: <ukuk mulak yaka> lip ^{hyi} ukuk/ chaku-hayash k ^h upa nayka lip ^{hyi}
17:47	John Marr	JM: I cannot help you
17:50	Joe Peter	JP: wik nayka <wik q ^h ata> pus nayka eylan mayka	[JP-Notes] [LING] eylan [[ye?lan]]
17:54	John Marr	JM: on the following morning the elk skins arose

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
17:57	Joe Peter	JP: <alta uk> tənəs-san kʰanawi ukuk yaka mitxwit alta uk mulak yaka {skin}
18:01	John Marr	JM: and became elk
18:02	Joe Peter	JP: yaka chaku-mulak alta kʰanawi
18:05	John Marr	JM: the youth arose
18:08	Joe Peter	JP: alta pus ʔaska mamuk-paya <taʔlam>
18:11	John Marr	JM: he became a spirit
18:16	Joe Peter	JP: alta ya/ alta yaka chaku ukuk ɣluyma tilixam yawa miməlus-iliʔi	[JP-Notes] [LING] miməlus [[miməlust]]
18:21	John Marr	JM: and he went out
18:23	Joe Peter	JP: alta yaka ʔatwa ʔaxani
18:25	John Marr	JM: then all the elks arose and went into the woods
18:32	Joe Peter	JP: alta kʰanawi ukuk mulak ʔaska mitxwit pi ʔaska ʔatwa yawa kʰupa {stik}
18:37	John Marr	JM: now the panther took the woman at her arm
18:40	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk swawa yaka iskam ukuk ʔuchmən kʰupa yaka lima
18:45	John Marr	JM: he carried her out of the house
18:47	Joe Peter	JP: yaka lulu yaka ʔaxani kʰupa ukuk {haws}
18:50	John Marr	JM: and shook her so that all her flesh fell down
18:53	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mamuk-<ixwəl yaka xələl-xələl yaxka>> kʰanawi yaka itwəli yaka tʔux <yawa>
18:57	John Marr	JM: he threw her down and said
18:59	Joe Peter	JP: yaka mash yaxka kikwəli pi yaka wawa
19:02	John Marr	JM: your name shall be chicken-hawk
19:04	Joe Peter	JP: mayka/ mayka mamuk-<kələkəla> kəmtəks <{nim}> / <uk> kələkəla kəmtəks {mountain} kʰanawi-ikta
19:10	John Marr	JM: and from now on you will never make chiefs unhappy
19:14	Joe Peter	JP: ukuk/ ukuk <<anqat pi>> hilu/ hilu-ʔaksta pus <mayka> mamuk sik-təmtəm

Time	Speaker	Transcription	Research Notes
19:19	John Marr	JM: when you see a snake, you shall eat it
19:22	Joe Peter	JP: pus mayka ma/ pus mayka nanich ukuk uləq <alta mayka məkʰmək>
19:25	John Marr	JM: my name will be panther
19:27	Joe Peter	JP: yaka nayka {nim} <ukuk tənəs>-swawa	