

Joe Peter Project: 682-S2

1941 Metal Disc Transcriptions

| Time      | Speaker   | Transcription                                                                                                                                     |
|-----------|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP:21     | John Marr | he spoke to the old man                                                                                                                           |
| JP:24     | Joe Peter | it pulka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk ulman                                                                                                       |
| JP:31     | John Marr | he spoke in long time                                                                                                                             |
| JP:34     | Joe Peter | yaka wawa peteayaaa> lili [have we seen this before]                                                                                           |
| JP:38     | John Marr | when it was nearly day                                                                                                                            |
| JP:40     | Joe Peter | it ya- Peter wik-saya san ["yaka" for "it"]                                                                                                       |
| JP:43     | John Marr | the old man sleep                                                                                                                                 |
| JP: 00:45 | Joe Peter | JP: <ya> ulman yaka/ t' <sup>h</sup> ux-miməlus(t)/ ya.. [JM starts to talk] yakat' <sup>h</sup> ux <<{uh}>>/ musum ended here 1/20** |
| JP:50     | John Marr | when he said his sister                                                                                                                           |
| JP:52     | Joe Peter | yaka wawa pete ya yaka ats                                                                                                                        |
| JP:01:01  | John Marr | rise! John Marr will burn them.                                                                                                                   |
| JP:01:04  | Joe Peter | it ya- Peter mayka mitxwit nisayka mamuk-paya taska alta                                                                                          |
| JP:01:13  | John Marr | he argued and left the house                                                                                                                      |
| JP: 01:14 | Joe Peter | JP: yaka mitxwit pi yaka mash ukuk haws/ <pi yaka ta...> [JM starts to speak] tatwa taxani                                                        |
| JP:01:21  | John Marr | her daughter also arose and went out                                                                                                              |
| JP: 01:24 | Joe Peter | JP: yakaaa tənəs-tuchmən <<yaxka wəxt>> <mitayt> [for "mitxwit"?] pi yaka tatwa taxani                                                            |
| JP:01:31  | John Marr | then he set fire to the pitchwood                                                                                                                 |
| JP:01:34  | Joe Peter | it ya- Peter uk-paya ukuk lakum-stik                                                                                                              |
| JP:01:38  | John Marr | he went out                                                                                                                                       |
| JP:01:40  | Joe Peter | yaka taxani                                                                                                                                       |

|                                 |           |                                                                                                                          |
|---------------------------------|-----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: now the house began to burn |           |                                                                                                                          |
| JP: 4501:45                 | Joe Peter | alta uk.. yaka/ hayash paya                                                                                              |
| JM: 4901:49                 | John Marr |                                                                                                                          |
| JP: 5101:51                 | Joe Peter | ukuk wawa                                                                                                                |
| JM: 5401:54                 | John Marr | rise!                                                                                                                    |
| JP: 5601:56                 | Joe Peter | ukuk <<nayka aw mi+...>>                                                                                                 |
| JM: 5901:59                 | John Marr | be burnt                                                                                                                 |
| JM: 0302:03                 | John Marr |                                                                                                                          |
| JP: 02:1102:11              | Joe Peter | <pi alta uk.. ukuk man ukuk> nayka aw <alta mayka mi+ayt>alta nisayka chaku-paya                                     |
| JM: 1602:16                 | John Marr | and the door was locked                                                                                                  |
| JP: 02:2302:23              | Joe Peter | yaka yaka mi.. yaka mi+ayt pi yaka t'tap ukuk lapot// iɣpúy                                                              |
| JM: 01:4201:42              | John Marr | [Note: JP possibly is mixing up "mitxwit" and "mi+ayt" in this section]                                                  |
| JM: 3402:34                 | John Marr | and his son were burnt                                                                                                   |
| JP: 3802:38                 | Joe Peter |                                                                                                                          |
| JM: 4502:45                 | John Marr | and his son were burnt                                                                                                   |
| JP: 4802:48                 | Joe Peter | alta uk.. yaka pi yaka hayash tēnas tēnəs-man +aska paya                                                                 |
| JM: 5402:54                 | John Marr | searched for her uncles                                                                                                  |
| JP: 02:5902:59              | Joe Peter | alta yaka/ hayu-nanich k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka chupa [Note: imperfective "hayu-"]                                        |
| JM: 0503:05                 | John Marr | in the woods                                                                                                             |
| JP: 03:0803:08              | Joe Peter | yaka t'tap +aska k <sup>h</sup> upa <hayas [hayash]> stik/ saya [Note: either "hayash" or "k <sup>h</sup> upaaasssstik"] |
| JM: 1203:12                 | John Marr | led them to the water                                                                                                    |
| JP: 1403:14                 | Joe Peter | yaka k <sup>h</sup> upa <hayash>/ chək                                                                                   |
|                                 |           |                                                                                                                          |

|                                       |                                                        |                                                                                                                             |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: she blew some water on the bodies |                                                        |                                                                                                                             |
| 03:24                                 | Joe Marr                                               | yaka mamuk//                                                                                                                |
| 03:31                                 | John Marr                                              |                                                                                                                             |
| JP:                                   | yaka mamuk                                             | <<t'ux/chək>> <<yaka>> mamuk                                                                                                |
| 03:34                                 | Joe Marr                                               | <<t'ux/chək>> Peter <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk> chək pi †aska/ alta <..> †aska mitxwit [check this against next recording] |
| 03:40                                 | John Marr                                              |                                                                                                                             |
| 03:42                                 | Joe Marr                                               |                                                                                                                             |
| 03:44                                 | John Marr                                              | distance                                                                                                                    |
| 03:46                                 | Joe Marr                                               |                                                                                                                             |
| 03:48                                 | John Marr                                              |                                                                                                                             |
| 03:50                                 | Joe Marr                                               | hayaash/ leyk/ chək                                                                                                         |
| 03:57                                 | John Marr                                              | the lake                                                                                                                    |
| 04:03                                 | Joe Marr                                               | wash k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk leyk/ ukuk chək                                                                                |
| 04:10                                 | John Marr                                              | their sister dived and said                                                                                                 |
| JP:                                   | yaka ukuk.. <alta> ukuk †aska ats miməlus pi yaka wawa | [note: JP hears "died" instead of "dived". May not be following along the text at this point]                               |
| 04:24                                 | Joe Marr                                               |                                                                                                                             |
| 04:26                                 | Joe Marr                                               | kikwəli k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk chək                                                                                        |
| 04:30                                 | John Marr                                              | [does JP hear "revived"?]                                                                                                   |
| JP:                                   | ukuk.. ukuk k <sup>h</sup> anawi                       | <nsayka/yaka> aw <<ats/†..>> †aska                                                                                          |
| 04:33                                 | Joe Marr                                               | †aska mitayt alta [note: JP seems to hear "revived"]                                                                        |
| 04:42                                 | John Marr                                              |                                                                                                                             |
| 04:44                                 | Joe Marr                                               | <(k)ikwəli>                                                                                                                 |

|                     |                                    |                                                                     |
|---------------------|------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: she dived again |                                    |                                                                     |
| 04:51               | ayka Joe Peter                     | wa kikweli                                                          |
| 04:54               | shall I do?                        | Marr                                                                |
| JP: 04:57"na"]  | ayka na fatwa kikweliJoe Peter | <k <sup>h</sup> upa uk(uk)> chək [question particle                 |
| 05:00               | yes dive                           | John Marr                                                           |
| 05:02               | [aha] Joe Peter                    | wa kikweli k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk chək                             |
| 05:05               | so I look pretty                   | in this lake?                                                       |
| 05:06               | ayka Joe Peter                     | k <sup>h</sup> upa-nanich k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk hayash leyk/ chək |
| 05:14               | yes you do                         | look pretty in this lake                                            |
| 05:20               | awitka Joe Peter                   | nanich tush                                                         |
| 05:23               | then she dive                      | again                                                               |
| 05:25               | next year                          | Joe Peter                                                           |
| 05:28               | after she                          | dived three times                                                   |
| 05:30               | ayka Joe Peter                     | wa kikweli fun                                                      |
| 05:35               | hair began to grow                 | on her                                                              |
| 05:38               | ayka Joe Peter                     | wəxt {uh} tipsu chaku                                               |
| 05:49               | she said                           | to him                                                              |
| 05:52               | ayka Joe Peter                     | wa                                                                  |
| 05:56               | so I look pretty                   | in this lake?                                                       |
| 05:59               | ayka Joe Peter                     | nanich k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk leyk                                 |
| 06:02               | h no                               | John Marr                                                           |
| 06:04               | heyk [ok]                          | Peter                                                               |
| 06:06               | you do not                         | look pretty in this lake                                            |
| 06:11               | lik mayka Peter                    | ch-k <sup>h</sup> upa-nanich                                        |
| 06:14               | why did you not                    | tell me before                                                      |

|                                              |           |                                                                                                                        |
|----------------------------------------------|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: q <sup>h</sup> ata wik mayka wawa anqati |           |                                                                                                                        |
| 06:21                                        | John Marr | low shəpəhad <sup>h</sup> ed five/ five times                                                                          |
| 06:26                                        | Joe Peter | ʔa <sup>h</sup> wa <sup>h</sup> k'wəli k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk chək [q <sup>h</sup> winəm] [qwinəm] t <sup>h</sup> aym |
| 06:31                                        | John Marr | and shəpəhad <sup>h</sup> ed always in the lake                                                                        |
| 06:34                                        | Joe Peter | ʔa <sup>h</sup> upa <sup>h</sup> mi <sup>h</sup> ayt kwanisim                                                          |
| 06:37                                        | John Marr | and be <sup>h</sup> came monster                                                                                       |
| 06:39                                        | Joe Peter | yaka <sup>h</sup> k'eteskukúm                                                                                          |
| 06:42                                        | John Marr | they to <sup>h</sup> ok <sup>h</sup> ed only their neice along                                                         |
| 06:47                                        | John Marr | [Silence] SWITCH TO JP                                                                                           |
| 07:25                                        | John Marr | an't ya <sup>h</sup> get <sup>h</sup> the word neice                                                                   |
| 07:27                                        | John Marr | [Silence] SWITCH TO JP                                                                                           |
| 07:34                                        | John Marr | We'll s <sup>h</sup> ip <sup>h</sup> ed/ they arrived at their house and stayed there                                  |
| 07:46                                        | Joe Peter | ʔaska/ ʔas <sup>h</sup> k'etə <sup>h</sup> wa k'ilapay k <sup>h</sup> upa ʔaska haws alta <pi> mi <sup>h</sup> ayt     |
| 07:49                                        | Joe Peter | now all <sup>h</sup> the people wanted to marry the girl                                                               |
| 07:53                                        | Joe Peter | ʔa <sup>h</sup> k <sup>h</sup> əwətə <sup>h</sup> xam ʔaska tiki iskam ukuk tənəs-ʔuchmən                              |
| 07:59                                        | John Marr | but the <sup>h</sup> old man did not give her away                                                                     |
| 08:02                                        | Joe Peter | ukuk <sup>h</sup> k'etə <sup>h</sup> w wik yaka [pa <sup>h</sup> ʔach] [pa <sup>h</sup> ʔach] ya <sup>h</sup> ka       |
| 08:06                                        | John Marr | finally <sup>h</sup> he married her                                                                                    |
| 08:08                                        | Joe Peter | ukuk <sup>h</sup> hawə <sup>h</sup> k'etə <sup>h</sup> yi yaka iskam ya <sup>h</sup> ka                                |
| 08:12                                        | John Marr | then shəpəhad <sup>h</sup> ed with him                                                                                 |
| 08:15                                        | Joe Peter | ya <sup>h</sup> ka <sup>h</sup> k'etə <sup>h</sup> upa ya <sup>h</sup> ka lili                                         |
| 08:19                                        | John Marr | [Silence]                                                                                                              |
| 08:34                                        | John Marr | you.. ya <sup>h</sup> did <sup>h</sup> remember blue-jay did you                                                       |
| 08:38                                        | Joe Peter | {could <sup>h</sup> he answer that}                                                                                    |
| 08:45                                        | John Marr | [Silence]                                                                                                              |
| 09:27                                        | John Marr | now the <sup>h</sup> old man is discontented because she never laughed                                                 |

|                                                                                                                     |                                                        |  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JP: ukuk kəlakəla <wik> kəlakəla/ †ush-təmtəm pus wik yaka/ hihi[note: Joe dropped "wik" for "wik †ush-təmtəm"] |                                                        |  |
| J0:49                                                                                                               | After a John Marr                                      |  |
| J0:52                                                                                                               | qi/ tənəs- Peter yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka man |  |
| J0:59                                                                                                               | am getting tired [change audio length]           |  |
| J0:02                                                                                                               | alta.. alta.. Peter [audio cut-off]                    |  |
| J0:03                                                                                                               | blank John Marr                                        |  |
| J0:09                                                                                                               | so far away Marr                                       |  |
| JP: alta mayka mash nayka †atwa saya [northern dialect example10:17 Joe Peterof "mash" as "leave"]          |                                                        |  |
| J0:21                                                                                                               | then I said I'm                                        |  |
| J0:24                                                                                                               | upa/ Peter nayka hihi                                  |  |
| J0:28                                                                                                               | no, don't                                              |  |
| J0:31                                                                                                               | wik waka Peter <la..>/ wik mayka hihi alta             |  |
| J0:41                                                                                                               | Joe Peter                                              |  |
| J0:35                                                                                                               | After she said again                                   |  |
| JP: alta tənəs-an.. tənəs-anqati <wəxt> tənəs-lili pi <†as..> yaka10:38 Joe Peter<wawa>/ wəxt               |                                                        |  |
| J0:46                                                                                                               | am getting tired                                       |  |
| J0:57                                                                                                               | alta> Peter chaku-thil [note: JP says "thili"]         |  |
| J1:00                                                                                                               | then he said                                           |  |
| JP: alta yaka <<man>> alta yaka <<man ya wawa>> [major11:04 Joe Peteraudio distortion]                      |                                                        |  |
| J1:08                                                                                                               | Well then I know                                       |  |
| J1:10                                                                                                               | hi alta Peter                                          |  |
| J1:14                                                                                                               | he said John Marr                                      |  |
| J1:17                                                                                                               | yaka wawa Peter                                        |  |

|                                                                                                                 |           |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|--|
| JM: I will laugh because/ the bird/ I will laugh because the bird makes me tired                                |           |  |
| JP: 11:28nayka/ <<{oh now}>> nayka/ hihi/ {'cause} ukuk tayi yaka mamuk-/ t <sup>h</sup> il nayka           | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:39Go into the woods                                                                                      | John Marr |  |
| JP: 11:42<mayka> †atwa k <sup>h</sup> upá stik [might be dragging out "a" on "k <sup>h</sup> upa"]          | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:45He down on his knees                                                                                   | John Marr |  |
| JP:46†ayt k <sup>h</sup> upa mayka//                                                                        | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:54And you are                                                                                            | John Marr |  |
| JM:19And close your ears                                                                                    | John Marr |  |
| JP:23mamuk/                                                                                                 | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:45What's there for ears in yours                                                                         | John Marr |  |
| JP:48Swelaj [interjection]                                                                                  | Joe Peter |  |
| 11:19John Marr                                                                                              |           |  |
| JM:50That's good enough then early in the morning                                                           | John Marr |  |
| JP: 12:54ukuk tənə.. ukuk/ hayash tənəs-san [hayash used for very. northern]                                | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:58She went to Mathe                                                                                      | John Marr |  |
| JP:00yaka yaka-wash                                                                                         | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:05She took a comb and combed herself                                                                     | John Marr |  |
| JP: 13:05ya ya yaxka mamuk yaka <<mamuk/lu..>> lulu k <sup>h</sup> um <<yaka>> k <sup>h</sup> um yaka latet | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:16Then she went out                                                                                      | John Marr |  |
| JP:18ta yaka                                                                                                | Joe Peter |  |
| JM:17Now she said                                                                                           | John Marr |  |
| JP:19ta yaka                                                                                                | Joe Peter |  |

|                        |            |                                                                                                                                   |
|------------------------|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: where are you bird |            |                                                                                                                                   |
| JP:23                  | yaka Peter |                                                                                                                                   |
| JM:25                  | John Marr  |                                                                                                                                   |
| JP:27                  | Joe Peter  | ayka hih                                                                                                                          |
| JM:31                  | John Marr  |                                                                                                                                   |
| JP:32                  | Joe Peter  |                                                                                                                                   |
| JM:35                  | John Marr  | of her husband's people                                                                                                           |
| JP:37                  | Joe Peter  | yaka man yaka tilixam                                                                                                             |
| JM:41                  | John Marr  |                                                                                                                                   |
| JP: 13:44              | Joe Peter  | alta <pi> mash sitkum san ["mash" used for "left behind" or "parted ways"]                                                        |
| JM:49                  | John Marr  | she came to herself again                                                                                                         |
| JP:51                  | Joe Peter  | al..> // yaka chaku-kəmtəks wəxt                                                                                                  |
| JM:53                  | John Marr  | the bones                                                                                                                         |
| JP: 14:06              | Joe Peter  | yaxka mash k <sup>h</sup> anawi yaxka mash k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka lapush k <sup>h</sup> anawi ukuk/ {bones}                      |
| JM:14                  | John Marr  | she searched for her husband but did not find him                                                                                 |
| JP: 14:20              | Joe Peter  | yaka t <sup>h</sup> ap k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka <ma..> pi yaka nanich <k <sup>h</sup> upa> yaka man pi hilu yaka t <sup>h</sup> ap |
| JM:26                  | John Marr  | she searched among the bones of all these people                                                                                  |
| JP:32                  | Joe Peter  | yaka man.. {bones} k <sup>h</sup> upa k <sup>h</sup> anawi yaka tilixam                                                           |
| JM:36                  | John Marr  |                                                                                                                                   |
| JM:51                  | John Marr  |                                                                                                                                   |
| JP:52                  | Joe Peter  | yaxka> [near end of pg.19]                                                                                                        |
| JM:54                  | John Marr  | but his legs to his knees were gone                                                                                               |
| JM:59                  | John Marr  |                                                                                                                                   |

|                                                                                  |                                                                                              |                                                                |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: k <sup>h</sup> anawi yaka [lep <sup>h</sup> iye] [lip <sup>h</sup> yi]/ hilu |                                                                                              |                                                                |
| JM:15                                                                            | she put John Mar                                                                             | a basket                                                       |
| JP:36                                                                            | yaka Joe Peter                                                                               | mi <sup>h</sup> ayt yaxka k <sup>h</sup> upa <<ukuk>> {basket} |
| JM:43                                                                            | and moved                                                                                    | short distance                                                 |
| JP:46                                                                            | yaka Joe Peter                                                                               | rik-saya                                                       |
| JM:52                                                                            | she made John Mar                                                                            | and lived there                                                |
| JP:57                                                                            | yaka Joe Peter                                                                               | saws pi yaka mi <sup>h</sup> ayt k <sup>h</sup> upá            |
| JM:60                                                                            | after some time                                                                              |                                                                |
| JP:63                                                                            | qi an John Peter                                                                             |                                                                |
| JM:65                                                                            | she fell John Mar                                                                            | gave birth to two boys                                         |
| JP:16:10                                                                         | yaka chaku-sik pi yaka.. <yaka> t' <sup>h</sup> ap makwst tənəs/ Joe Peter tənəs-man         |                                                                |
| JM:18                                                                            | when her children                                                                            | became older                                                   |
| JP:22                                                                            | yaka Joe Peter                                                                               | aku-hayash                                                     |
| JM:25                                                                            | she said John Mar                                                                            |                                                                |
| JP:27                                                                            | yaka wawa Peter                                                                              | taaska [taska]                                                 |
| JM:30                                                                            | do not go John Mar                                                                           | up the river                                                   |
| JP:16:33                                                                         | wik tatwa.. wik mayka tatwa saxali <yakwa> k <sup>h</sup> upa <uk> chək/ Joe Peter saya      |                                                                |
| JM:39                                                                            | you must John Mar                                                                            | go DOWN the river                                              |
| JP:16:42                                                                         | yaka mayka tatwa kikwəli k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk chək [k <sup>h</sup> upa-ukuk contraction?] |                                                                |
| JM:45                                                                            | they opened John Mar                                                                         |                                                                |
| JP:47                                                                            | aska Joe Peter                                                                               | ryaka wawa                                                     |
| JM:49                                                                            | when they were                                                                               | older                                                          |
| JP:52                                                                            | aska John Peter                                                                              | yash                                                           |

|                                                                                                                |                                                                              |  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: the older brother said to his/ brother                                                                     |                                                                              |  |
| JP: 16:57Joe Peterwawa> k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka tənəs-aw                                               | {uh} // ukuk ulman yaka <<hayu->> wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa <yaka              |  |
| JM: 07John Marr                                                                                            | Et us g <sup>o</sup> lo <sup>h</sup> up Ma <sup>re</sup>                     |  |
| JP: 09Joe Peter                                                                                            | ŋa ntə <sup>h</sup> ay k <sup>h</sup> atwa saḡali                            |  |
| JM: 13John Marr                                                                                            | One day the Ma <sup>re</sup> went                                            |  |
| JP: 15Joe Peter                                                                                            | ŋt san <sup>h</sup> as k <sup>h</sup> atwa                                   |  |
| JM: 18John Marr                                                                                            | And they found bones of people                                               |  |
| JP: 17:21Joe Peter[possible audio distortion in "hayuuu"]                                              | ʔaska t <sup>h</sup> ap <<hayuuu>> {bones} k <sup>h</sup> upa anqati tilixam |  |
| JM: 26John Marr                                                                                            | Et us g <sup>o</sup> lo <sup>h</sup> Ma <sup>re</sup>                        |  |
| JP: 28Joe Peter[possible audio distortion (see double brackets). near bottom of pg. 10:54John Marr | yaka wawa <<ixt tən... ...>> ʔatwa/ k <sup>h</sup> upa haws/ k'ilapay        |  |
| JM: 33John Marr                                                                                            | They reached their home                                                      |  |
| JP: 35Joe Peter                                                                                            | ʔaska/ k <sup>h</sup> atwa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka haws                      |  |
| JM: 41John Marr                                                                                            | And the older brother said                                                   |  |
| JP: 45Joe Peter                                                                                            | ukuk/ {uh} / ul aw yaka wawa                                                 |  |
| JM: 53John Marr                                                                                            | These people                                                                 |  |
| JP: 56Joe Peter                                                                                            | ukuk ʔa <sup>h</sup> ayam tilixam                                            |  |
| JM: 06John Marr                                                                                            | How many of them have died?                                                  |  |
| JP: 07Joe Peter                                                                                            | ŋa ntə <sup>h</sup> ay k <sup>h</sup> atwa                                   |  |
| JM: 04John Marr                                                                                            | How they were                                                                |  |
| JP: 07Joe Peter                                                                                            | ŋa ntə <sup>h</sup> ay k <sup>h</sup> atwa                                   |  |
| JM: 10John Marr                                                                                            | One day the Ma <sup>re</sup> bathed                                          |  |
| JP: 12Joe Peter                                                                                            | ŋt san <sup>h</sup> as k <sup>h</sup> atwa                                   |  |

|                                                                                                 |                                                        |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: now they missed a comb                                                                      |                                                        |  |
| J18:18                                                                                          | taska t'ap ya Petet'ap yaka comb                       |  |
| J18:22                                                                                          | the old John Marr said                                 |  |
| J18:24                                                                                          | ukuk a Joe Peter yaka wawa                             |  |
| J18:27                                                                                          | perhaps we Ma find a comb in that basket               |  |
| J18:34                                                                                          | axti Joe Peter t'ap ukuk {comb} k'upa {basket} yawa    |  |
| J18:36                                                                                          | let us take down that basket                           |  |
| J18:41                                                                                          | isayk kom Betek/ kikweli ukuk                          |  |
| J18:45                                                                                          | now they took down the basket                          |  |
| J18:47                                                                                          | taska Joe Peter kikweli ukuk {basket}                  |  |
| J18:50                                                                                          | and took down mountain goat blanket                    |  |
| JP: taska mamuk-chaku <skin> taska tatwa pus wawa ENDED18:53 Joe PeterHERE 2/3/25 |                                                        |  |
| J18:55                                                                                          | now they found a person in that bla.. in that basket   |  |
| J19:05                                                                                          | ukuk Joe Peter                                         |  |
| J19:08                                                                                          | found a person in that basket [pg 20]                  |  |
| J19:10                                                                                          | taska Joe Peter taska t'ap tilixam k'upa ukuk {basket} |  |
| J19:16                                                                                          | he said John Marr                                      |  |
| J19:18                                                                                          | taska wawa Peter                                       |  |
| J19:19                                                                                          | oh my child Marr                                       |  |
| J19:21                                                                                          | ukuk k Joe Peter ayka tenas                            |  |
| J19:24                                                                                          | your mother Marr                                       |  |
| J19:26                                                                                          | ayka Joe Peter mama yaka masachi                       |  |
| J19:30                                                                                          | you see John Marr                                      |  |
| J19:32                                                                                          | ayka Joe Peter ayka                                    |  |
| J19:34                                                                                          | am on John Marr                                        |  |

|                         |           |                                                                       |
|-------------------------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: kʰəpit sitkum nayka |           |                                                                       |
| 19:36                   | Joe Peter | Quick hang me up again                                                |
| 19:41                   | Joe Peter | ayaq njaer-tesaxali nayka wəxt                                        |
| 19:44                   | John Mar  | Else you John Mar will come and devour us                             |
| 19:47                   | Joe Peter | JP: <<{uh}>> †aska <məyka> mama yaka chaku <yaka t'†ap>nsayka     |
| 19:51                   | John Mar  | They took the father and hung him up again                            |
| 19:56                   | Joe Peter | JP: <<alta>> †aska iskam †aska papa pi <<†aska>>mamuk-saxali wəxt |
| 19:36                   | Joe Peter |                                                                       |