

Joe Peter Project: 684-S1

1941 Metal Disc Transcriptions

| Time      | Speaker   | Transcription                                                                                |
|-----------|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: 00:10 | Joe Peter | Silence                                                                                      |
| JP: 00:14 | Joe Peter | Nobody ever matches my father when he is whaling                                             |
| JP: 00:19 | Joe Peter | JP: wik-†aksta yaka nanich ukuk <<nay>> †uchmən <yaka> papapus yaka mamuk hayash-samən   |
| JP: 00:26 | Joe Peter | He got angry. Ma said                                                                        |
| JP: 00:29 | Joe Peter | Yaka chuk-Betliks pi yaka wawa                                                               |
| JP: 00:32 | Joe Peter | must sell Ma                                                                                 |
| JP: 00:33 | Joe Peter | Yaka tiki-Beteh yaxka                                                                        |
| JP: 00:36 | Joe Peter | Now after he looked at him                                                                   |
| JP: 00:38 | Joe Peter | in qat, Joe Peter yaka nanich yaxka                                                          |
| JP: 00:43 | Joe Peter | soon he saw a whale                                                                          |
| JP: 00:46 | Joe Peter | wik-lili yaka yaka nanich/ <ukuk> hayash-samən                                               |
| JP: 00:47 | Joe Peter | which way Ma the dipnet                                                                      |
| JP: 00:49 | Joe Peter | Yaka †awa Peter k <sup>h</sup> upa>> ukuk yaka dipnet                                        |
| JP: 00:51 | Joe Peter | that the Thuma der held                                                                      |
| JP: 00:53 | Joe Peter | ukuk play Peter yaka iskam                                                                   |
| JP: 00:55 | Joe Peter | he Thuma der lifted it                                                                       |
| JP: 00:57 | Joe Peter | JP: ukuk paya-man yaka mamuk-[salax/sahlx] [mamuk-saxali][flipped syllables for saxali?] |
| JP: 00:59 | Joe Peter | But the Thuma der jumped over the rim of the net                                             |
| JP: 01:02 | Joe Peter | JP: <alta> hayas-samən [hayash-samən] yaka supəna inatay k <sup>h</sup> upayaka/ {net}   |
| JP: 01:07 | Joe Peter | he Thuma der looked toward the land                                                          |

|                                                                            |           |                                     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|-------------------------------------|
| JP: ukuk paya-man yaka nanich k <sup>h</sup> upa ile?i [ili?i]             |           |                                     |
| 01:13                                                                      | John Marr | It once thundered                   |
| JP: ayaq yaka/ munk-paya ile?i [ili?i] [Note: sounds clearly like "munk"]  | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:20                                                                      | John Marr | Lightning                           |
| JP: paya-ile?i paya-ile?i [idiom for lightning?]                           | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:23                                                                      | John Marr | And hail                            |
| JP: hayu-hayash.. [break in audio]                                         | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:25                                                                      | John Marr | Another person entered his dipnet   |
| JP: <kaku> wəxt ixt hayash-samən supəna/ k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka {net}     | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:26                                                                      | Joe Peter | [break in audio?] ..ta              |
| 01:30                                                                      | John Marr | But when he did so                  |
| JP: yaka mash kakwə [kakwa]                                                | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:34                                                                      | John Marr | He walked out of the net            |
| 01:09                                                                      | Joe Peter |                                     |
| JP: ukuk hayash-samən yaka supəna taxani k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka {net}     | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:39                                                                      | John Marr | Then the thief got angry            |
| JP: ukuk hayash-samən kəlak.. kəlakəla yaka chaku-saliks                   | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:44                                                                      | John Marr | He began to rain and storm          |
| JP: ta yaka hayu-hayash sno/ <{hmm}>                                       | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:51                                                                      | John Marr | He went down and threw down his net |
| JP: yaka taxani haws yaka mash yaka net k <sup>h</sup> upa  ile?i  [ili?i] | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 01:59                                                                      | John Marr | His son left the house              |
| JP: ukuk ukuk taxani yaka man                                              | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 02:04                                                                      | John Marr | Look so                             |
| JP: yaka iskam ukuk paya/ paya// paya-stik/  ile?i  [ili?i]                | Joe Peter |                                     |
| 02:13                                                                      | John Marr | They went to the rock               |
|                                                                            |           |                                     |

|                                                                   |           |                                                                                                                                               |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: ya ʔatwa k <sup>h</sup> upa stun [Note: seemingly clear "ya"] |           |                                                                                                                                               |
| 02:18                                                             | Joe Marr  | He blackened his forehead                                                                                                                     |
| 02:20                                                             | Joe Peter | yaka yaka mamuk-ʔiʔil yaka/ latet saxli                                                                                                       |
| 02:25                                                             | John Marr | and so the west wind arose                                                                                                                    |
| 02:28                                                             | Joe Peter | JP: ukuk win ukuk {uh}/ win yaka < cha  [chaku] k <sup>h</sup> upa> q <sup>h</sup> a <ya>k <sup>h</sup> upa ʔax-san                       |
| 02:30                                                             | John Marr | which John Marr the old man's house                                                                                                           |
| 02:36                                                             | Joe Peter | JP: yaka mamuk// yaka mamuk-win/  lolo  [lulu] k <sup>h</sup> upa win yakahaws/ saya                                                      |
| 02:42                                                             | John Marr | He tried to fasten the boards                                                                                                                 |
| 02:45                                                             | Joe Peter | JP: yaka mamuk-ʔatwa ukuk s..>/ laplash k <sup>h</sup> anawi                                                                                  |
| 02:50                                                             | John Marr | // {hm} John Marr he was unable to do so                                                                                                      |
| 03:14                                                             | Joe Peter | JP: pi wik yaka mamuk-kakwa//  xawqwaʔ  [xawqaʔ] yaka02:16 uk-kal Joe Peter                                                               |
| 03:21                                                             | John Marr | Then the Thumer said to his daughter                                                                                                          |
| 03:23                                                             | Joe Peter | JP: ukuk ukuk ʔaya-man yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka tēnas-ʔuchmən                                                                        |
| 03:27                                                             | John Marr | Oh my child Marr                                                                                                                              |
| 03:29                                                             | Joe Peter | JP: nayka ʔaya                                                                                                                                |
| 03:30                                                             | John Marr | Go look for my husband                                                                                                                        |
| 03:33                                                             | Joe Peter | JP: nayka ʔatwa nanich k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk mayka/ man                                                                                     |
| 03:37                                                             | John Marr | Tell him John Marr he may look at me when I go whaling                                                                                        |
| 03:43                                                             | Joe Peter | JP: <{now}> mayka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaxka <ʔʔi> yaka ʔatwa-nanichnayka tujəpəpus nayka ʔatwa-nanich/ tʔap sam(ən)..hayash-samən |
| 03:49                                                             | John Marr | His daughter went and found her husband                                                                                                       |
| JP: yaka tēnas ʔatwa <<nayka>> tēnas <<...>> ʔatwa-nanich         |           |                                                                                                                                               |

|                         |           |                                                                                                            |
|-------------------------|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <<pi/pus>> yaka man *** |           |                                                                                                            |
| 03:57                   | John Marr |                                                                                                            |
| 03:58                   | Joe Peter |                                                                                                            |
| 03:59                   | John Marr | you descend to your father-in-law's house                                                                  |
| JP: 04:02               | Joe Peter | mayka mamuk-s.. mayka mamuk- {uh} hilu ukuk mayka/ mayka papa yaka haws                                    |
| 04:09                   | John Marr | he says to you now you may look at him when he catches whales                                              |
| JP: 04:12               | Joe Peter | <<{now}>> yaka wawa a†qi tumala <<pus ukuk chaku san>> mayka nanich yaka mamuk ukuk hayash-samən iskam *** |
| 04:19                   | John Marr | then the young man took some water                                                                         |
| 04:21                   | Joe Peter | ukuk/ yaka Peter-s-man yaka iskam/ chək                                                                    |
| 04:26                   | John Marr | and washed his face                                                                                        |
| JP: 04:35               | Joe Peter | yaka wawa Peter mamuk-wash yaka// latet kʰanawi                                                            |
| 04:37                   | Joe Peter |                                                                                                            |
| 04:42                   | John Marr | because he is tall                                                                                         |
| JP: 04:44               | Joe Peter | yaka chək Peter-sh-san alta                                                                                |
| 04:47                   | John Marr | he went home with his wife                                                                                 |
| JP: 04:49               | Joe Peter | yaka †atwa Peter-s kʰanumakwst yaka †uchmən                                                                |
| 04:51                   | John Marr | and he told the old man fasten the boards to the roof                                                      |
| JP: 04:54               | Joe Peter | yaka <mam..> yaka mamuk kʰanumakwst [uku] [ukuk] ulman mamuk-mi†ayt ukuk laplash kʰilapay kʰanawi          |
| 05:00                   | John Marr | he said to his father-in-law                                                                               |
| JP: 05:02               | Joe Peter | yaka wawa Peter papa yaka papa yak../ yaka †uchmən yaka papa                                               |
| 05:07                   | John Marr | tomorrow we will go down to the beach                                                                      |
| JP: 05:09               | Joe Peter | tumala nayka/ tumala alta nayka †atwa yawa/ kʰupa ukuk hayash-chək wik-saya                                |
| 05:15                   | John Marr | and you will see me catching whales                                                                        |

|                                                                 |                                                                                      |                                                                 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: mayka nanich nayka iskam ukuk hayash-samən                  |                                                                                      |                                                                 |
| 05:21                                                           | In the following morning they went down to the beach together                        |                                                                 |
| 05:24                                                           | yaka Joe Peter san tənəs-san taska tatwa k <sup>h</sup> upá k <sup>h</sup> anumakwst |                                                                 |
| 05:28                                                           | After a little while                                                                 |                                                                 |
| 05:30                                                           | Joe Peter                                                                            |                                                                 |
| 05:31                                                           | Joe Peter the dipnet                                                                 |                                                                 |
| 05:33                                                           | Joe Peter samən yaka supəna k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka/ {dipnet}                        |                                                                 |
| 05:37                                                           | Joe Peter lifted it                                                                  |                                                                 |
| 05:38                                                           | Joe Peter yaka mamuk-sax.. saxali ukuk                                               |                                                                 |
| 05:42                                                           | Joe Peter whale ashore                                                               |                                                                 |
| JP: yaka mash ukuk hayash-sam.. [possible break in audio] ..man |                                                                                      |                                                                 |
| 05:44                                                           | Joe Peter                                                                            | ompt skipped based on Chinook Texts: "then the thunderer said"] |
| 05:47                                                           | Joe Peter                                                                            | ote: in Chinook Texts "hohoo, my son-in-law,"]                  |
| 05:49                                                           | Joe Peter yaka tənəs tənəs-man                                                       |                                                                 |
| 05:53                                                           | Joe Peter was when I was a young man                                                 |                                                                 |
| 05:56                                                           | Joe Peter k <sup>h</sup> wa nayka/ <kakwa> nayka tənəs-man                           |                                                                 |
| 06:00                                                           | Joe Peter's daughter became pregnant                                                 |                                                                 |
| 06:03                                                           | Joe Peter ukuk/ paya-man yaka tənəs/ chaku-kakwa                                     |                                                                 |
| 06:09                                                           | Joe Peter gave birth to two children                                                 |                                                                 |
| 06:11                                                           | Joe Peter yaka mamuk-tənəs/ k <sup>h</sup> upa makwst tənəs                          |                                                                 |
| 06:18                                                           | Joe Peter said to his son-in-law                                                     |                                                                 |
| 06:20                                                           | Joe Peter wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka tənəs tənəs-man                               |                                                                 |
| 06:25                                                           | Joe Peter two wolves                                                                 |                                                                 |
| 06:27                                                           | Joe Peter wawa mayka iskam makwst//                                                  |                                                                 |
| 06:32                                                           | Joe Peter play with them when I was young                                            |                                                                 |

|                                                   |           |                                                                                                                                |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: // anqati pus nayka hayu-hihi pus nayka tēnas |           |                                                                                                                                |
| 06:44                                             | John Marr | He went into the woods and caught two wolves                                                                                   |
| 06:48                                             | Joe Peter | JP: yaka ʔatwa saya kʰupa stik pi yaka iskam makwst ukuk[possibly covers microphone, muffled speaking]                     |
| 07:11                                             | John Marr | He threw John Marr down at his father-in-law's feet                                                                            |
| 07:14                                             | Joe Peter | Yaka mjae Peter kʰupa yaka/ ulman papa yaka/ lipʰyi                                                                            |
| 07:20                                             | John Marr | They bit John Marr                                                                                                             |
| 07:22                                             | Joe Peter | JP: yaka məkʰmək ʔaska pi yaxka kʰanawi/ kʰanawi-qʰa [note: possibly flipped "yaka" and "ʔaska"? or corrects with "pi yaxka"?] |
| 07:26                                             | John Marr | and had John Marr about                                                                                                        |
| 07:27                                             | Joe Peter | Yaka mjae Peter lu <yaka/yaxa> kʰanawi-qʰa                                                                                     |
| 07:31                                             | John Marr | He cried John Marr                                                                                                             |
| 07:31                                             | Joe Peter | Yaka hayu Peter                                                                                                                |
| 07:35                                             | Joe Peter | JP: 35 In they John Marr gotten me                                                                                             |
| 07:35                                             | Joe Peter | JP: 35 Say> Joe Peter pit-kəmtəks nayka alta                                                                                   |
| 07:37                                             | John Marr | Quick! John Marr them back                                                                                                     |
| 07:39                                             | Joe Peter | JP: 39 yaq! Joe Peter k'ilapay ʔaska <wəxt/alta>                                                                               |
| 07:41                                             | John Marr | He young John Marr carried them back                                                                                           |
| 07:43                                             | Joe Peter | JP: 43 uk tjae Peter yaka iskam ʔaska mamuk-k'ilapay ʔaska                                                                     |
| 07:47                                             | John Marr | JP: 47 After a while John Marr Thunderer said [pg. 34]                                                                         |
| 07:49                                             | Joe Peter | JP: 49 ta at Joe Peter ta ukuk {uh} paya-man yaka wawa                                                                         |
| 07:54                                             | John Marr | JP: 54 Go quick John Marr catch two bears                                                                                      |
| 07:56                                             | Joe Peter | JP: 56 ʔatwa/ Joe Peter yaq iskam makwst itswət                                                                                |
| 08:02                                             | John Marr | JP: 02 used to John Marr with them when I was young                                                                            |
| 08:04                                             | Joe Peter | JP: anqati nayka hayu-hihi kʰupa ʔaska <pus>/ nayka tēnastənəs-man                                                         |

|                                                   |                                                      |                                                                                 |
|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: then his son-in-law went and caught two bears |                                                      |                                                                                 |
| JP: 08:12Joe Petermakwst itswæt           | yaxka tənəs tənəs-man <yaka mamuk-> †atwa {uh} iskam |                                                                                 |
| 08:17                                             | John Marr                                            | he carried them to the house of his father-in-law                               |
| 08:19                                             | Joe Peter                                            | yaka mjael Betas k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka haws/ yaka papa yaka haws              |
| 08:24                                             | John Marr                                            | and then he laid them down at his feet                                          |
| 08:25                                             | Joe Peter                                            | yaka mjael Betas yaka lip <sup>h</sup> yi                                       |
| 08:28                                             | John Marr                                            | then they told him                                                              |
| 08:30                                             | Joe Peter                                            | aska jide Petyaxka                                                              |
| 08:32                                             | John Marr                                            | trunked them with their paws                                                    |
| 08:34                                             | Joe Peter                                            | aska jide Petyaxka k <sup>h</sup> upa <yaka li.. li..>/ lima                    |
| 08:37                                             | John Marr                                            | and then he was about in the house                                              |
| 08:39                                             | Joe Peter                                            | ayun-has Petyaxka k <sup>h</sup> anawi-q <sup>h</sup> a k <sup>h</sup> upa haws |
| 08:40                                             | John Marr                                            | oh" he said                                                                     |
| 08:42                                             | Joe Peter                                            | yaka wawa Petyaxka > [note: new word for "oh"?]                                 |
| 08:45                                             | John Marr                                            | carry them back                                                                 |
| 08:47                                             | Joe Peter                                            | lu †.. jide Betas k'ilapay                                                      |
| 08:50                                             | John Marr                                            | they do not remember me                                                         |
| 08:52                                             | Joe Peter                                            | aska jide Petyaxka mtəks nayka                                                  |
| 08:54                                             | John Marr                                            | the young man carried them back                                                 |
| 08:56                                             | Joe Peter                                            | kuk tənəs Petyaxka ya iskam †aska [Note: clear "ya" here]                       |
| 08:59                                             | John Marr                                            | after a while the Thunderer said                                                |
| 09:01                                             | Joe Peter                                            | qi al jide Petyaxka {uh} paya-man yaka wawa                                     |
| 09:05                                             | John Marr                                            | so quick and match <me> two grizzly bears                                       |
| JP: 09:08Joe Peterhayash-hayash// itswæt  | {oh} mayka †atwa alta ayaq <pu/pi> iskam makwst      |                                                                                 |

|                                                  |                                                                                                                                                     |  |
|--------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: I used to play with them when I was young    |                                                                                                                                                     |  |
| JP: 09:20Joe Petertənəs-man anqati       | pus nayka hihi k <sup>h</sup> upa †aska <<pus>>/ nayka tənəs/                                                                                       |  |
| JP: 09:25John Marr                           | the young man went into the woods                                                                                                                   |  |
| JP: 09:28Joe Peter                           | alta yaka tənəs-man yaka †atwa k <sup>h</sup> upa stik                                                                                              |  |
| JP: 09:31John Marr                           | he found the grizzly bear<s>                                                                                                                        |  |
| JP: 09:39Joe Peter                           | yaka t'kəp t'əyash-itswət                                                                                                                           |  |
| JP: 09:42John Marr                           | came to him                                                                                                                                         |  |
| JP: 09:43Joe Peter                           | yaka t'əpətskam mayka                                                                                                                               |  |
| JP: 09:46John Marr                           | he carried two of them to his father-in-law's house                                                                                                 |  |
| JP: 09:49Joe Peter                           | yaka lulu t'əpəst <<ukuk/yaka>> k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka papa yaka haws                                                                              |  |
| JP: 09:53John Marr                           | he entertained them and threw them at the feet of his father-in-law                                                                                 |  |
| JP: 09:56Joe PeterJP: 10:01John Marr | yaka/ chaku-haws pi yaka mash ukuk k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka papa yaka                                                                                |  |
| JM: 10:01John Marr                           | now they have reached him all over                                                                                                                  |  |
| JP: 10:04Joe Peter                           | †aska hayu-is.. yaka is.. iskam yaka mən-k-t'ʔəx-t'ʔəx yaxka[Note: clear ejective on t'ʔəx and second t'ʔəx reduced to t'ʔ. Also note "mən-k"]] |  |
| JP: 10:09John Marr                           | so that his body was full of blood                                                                                                                  |  |
| JP: 10:14Joe Peter                           | yaka/ ilu t'əpə mawī p <sup>h</sup> at pilpil                                                                                                       |  |
| JP: 10:15John Marr                           | he carried them back                                                                                                                                |  |
| JP: 10:17Joe Peter                           | lulu t'əpə t'ila.. mamuk-k'ilapay †aska [Note: clear ejective]                                                                                      |  |
| JP: 10:20John Marr                           | they have forgotten me                                                                                                                              |  |
| JP: 10:22Joe Peter                           | aska t'əpə t'əmtəks nayka                                                                                                                           |  |
| JP: 10:24John Marr                           | then his father-in-law carried them back                                                                                                            |  |
| JP: yaka                                         | tənəs tənəs-man <mamuk>-k'ilapay ukuk/ k <sup>h</sup> upa stik                                                                                      |  |

|                                                |           |                                                                                                       |
|------------------------------------------------|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| [Note: mamuk or possibly shortened form here?] |           |                                                                                                       |
| JM:32                                          | John Marr | When after some time the old man said                                                                 |
| JP: 10:35                                      | Joe Peter | aṭqi alta/ lili alta uk ulman yaka wawa [Note: "uk" sounds like "ug" or "ugu"]                        |
| JM:39                                          | John Marr | Go quickly and catch two panthers                                                                     |
| JP: 10:42                                      | Joe Peter | <mayka> ṭatwa/ ayaq munk-iskam/ makwst/// makwst swawa [Note: pretty clear "munk"]                    |
| JM:57                                          | John Marr | He <go> to the panthers                                                                               |
| JP:59                                          | Joe Peter | yaka iskan Petek makwst                                                                               |
| JM:01                                          | John Marr | He opened the door                                                                                    |
| JP: 11:03                                      | Joe Peter | yaka mamuk-xalaqṭ <ukuk> lapot [Note: ukuk sounds more like "ugu"]                                    |
| JM:05                                          | John Marr | and threw the man down at his father-in-law's feet                                                    |
| JP: 10:27                                      | Joe Peter | yaka Joe Peter k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk yaka/ papa yaka lip <sup>h</sup> iyi                           |
| JM:11                                          | John Marr | then they had touched him all over                                                                    |
| JP:13                                          | Joe Peter | yaka/ r <sup>h</sup> an Petek [t'ṭəx-t'ṭəx] [t'ṭəx-t'ṭəx] yaxka k <sup>h</sup> anawi-q <sup>h</sup> a |
| JM:17                                          | John Marr | and his whole body was full of blood                                                                  |
| JP:19                                          | Joe Peter | anawiyə Peter wəli p <sup>h</sup> atṭ pilpil                                                          |
| JM:22                                          | John Marr | ilpil is that word?// how do you say it?                                                              |
| JP:27                                          | Joe Peter | ilpil                                                                                                 |
| JM:28                                          | John Marr | ilpil                                                                                                 |
| JP:29                                          | Joe Peter | ilpil                                                                                                 |
| JM:31                                          | John Marr | "oh" he cried "carry them back"                                                                       |
| JP:33                                          | Joe Peter | <... r <sup>h</sup> an Peter> k'ilapay yaxk.. ṭaska ayaq                                              |
| JM:36                                          | John Marr | they do not know me anymore                                                                           |
| JP:37                                          | Joe Peter | hilu> k <sup>h</sup> upit-kəmtəks nayka alta                                                          |

|                                          |                                                                                                                        |  |
|------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: then the young man carried them back |                                                                                                                        |  |
| JP: 11:43                                | <ukuk> tənəs-man yaka <mamuk->k'ilapay †aska [Note: Joe Peter mamuk sounds reduced, maybe "mamk" or "ma(m)u"?]         |  |
| JM:46                                    | Did I hear John Marr say "kumtəks"?                                                                                    |  |
| JP:48                                    | {yes} Joe Peter                                                                                                        |  |
| JM:51                                    | What's John Marr mean?                                                                                                 |  |
| JP:52                                    | {know} Joe Peter                                                                                                       |  |
| JM:53                                    | know John Marr                                                                                                         |  |
| JP: 11:54                                | <<... k <sup>h</sup> upit-kəmtəks ... kəmtəks means...>> [Note: "offline" Joe Peter discussion, possibly covering mic] |  |
| JM:01                                    | Unintelligible John Marr [continuing discussion]                                                                       |  |
| JP:01                                    | Unintelligible Joe Peter [continuing discussion]                                                                       |  |
| JM:02                                    | Unintelligible John Marr [continuing discussion]                                                                       |  |
| JP:40 12:03                              | <<John Marr k <sup>h</sup> upit-kəmtəks that's forgot ...>> [unintelligible Joe Peter continuing discussion]           |  |
| JM:12                                    | Unintelligible John Marr [continuing discussion]                                                                       |  |
| JP:14                                    | Unintelligible Joe Peter [continuing discussion]                                                                       |  |
| JM:19                                    | Unintelligible John Marr [continuing discussion]                                                                       |  |
| JP:21                                    | Silence Joe Peter                                                                                                      |  |
| JM:24                                    | After a while John Marr Thunderer said                                                                                 |  |
| JP:26                                    | aqi/ tənəs-pitea alta aqi yaka wawa ukuk paya/ kəlakəla                                                                |  |
| JM:30                                    | Come John Marr                                                                                                         |  |
| JP:35                                    | haku/ Joe Peter tənəs tənəs-man                                                                                        |  |
| JM:37                                    | Let us go John Marr fog                                                                                                |  |
| JP:39                                    | say Joe Peter <mamuk>                                                                                                  |  |
| JM:42                                    | They were John Marr split a log in half                                                                                |  |

|                                                    |                                                                        |  |
|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JP: <<ukuk>> chaku-kakshət ukuk hayash-stik sitkum |                                                                        |  |
| J2:51                                              | he said John Marr                                                      |  |
| J2:57                                              | yaka wəwə kʰupa yaka tənəs tənəs-man                                   |  |
| J3:00                                              | crawl in John Marr                                                     |  |
| J3:02                                              | mayka/ Joe Peter kʰupá                                                 |  |
| J3:04                                              | and step John Marr arms against the log                                |  |
| J3:07                                              | mayka/ Joe Peter k-> miʔáyʔ mayka/ lima/ kʰupa ukuk stik               |  |
| J3:11                                              | the young John Marr sat down in there                                  |  |
| J3:14                                              | ukuk/ Joe Peter man yaka/ miʔáyʔ kʰupá                                 |  |
| J3:18                                              | when the John Marr knocked the.. knocked aside the wedge               |  |
| J3:21                                              | JP: <ya> ulman yaka/ q'wəʔ ukuk/ {wedge} kʰupá [Note: clear ejective]  |  |
| J3:27                                              | the tree John Marr over his son-in-law                                 |  |
| J2:4513:30                                     | ukuk/ John Peter yaka kʰanawi chaku-// k'ilapay kʰupa <ukuk> tənəs-man |  |
| J3:39                                              | he left John Marr                                                      |  |
| J3:40                                              | yaka kʰupa kʰupa-haws                                                  |  |
| J3:42                                              | he went John Marr distance                                             |  |
| J3:43                                              | yaka kʰupa kʰupá                                                       |  |
| J3:45                                              | the young John Marr                                                    |  |
| J3:47                                              | ukuk/ John Peter                                                       |  |
| J3:48                                              | however John Marr                                                      |  |
| J3:49                                              | kʰupá Joe Peter                                                        |  |
| J3:51                                              | kept the John Marr part with his elbows                                |  |
| J3:52                                              | yaka John Peter k stik/ saya kʰupa yaka lima kʰanawi                   |  |
| J3:57                                              | and brought John Marr                                                  |  |

|             |           |                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: kakshət |           |                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| J14:00      | Joe Peter | He carried him home on his shoulder                                                                                                                                                   |
| J14:02      | Joe Peter | yaka mən Peter' ilapay k <sup>h</sup> upa haws/ pi yaka.. [unfinished]                                                                                                                |
| J14:06      | Joe Peter | He came home and threw it in front of the house                                                                                                                                       |
| J14:10      | Joe Peter | yaka mən Peter' ilapay k <sup>h</sup> upa haws pi yaka mash k <sup>h</sup> upa/ ulman                                                                                                 |
| J14:16      | Joe Peter | When his father-in-law heard the noise he went out                                                                                                                                    |
| J14:20      | Joe Peter | JP: yaka/ uk ulman yaka kəmtəks ukuk/ ʔaxani pi yakamitxwit-ʔatwa ʔaxani [Note: "mitxwit-ʔatwa" for "walk"] ENDEDHERE 1/27/26                                           |
| J14:26      | Joe Peter | And on seeing the young man he said                                                                                                                                                   |
| J14:30      | Joe Peter | yaka mən Peter' ukuk tənəs-man pi yaka wawa                                                                                                                                           |
| J14:30      | Joe Peter | Oh my son-in-law                                                                                                                                                                      |
| J14:33      | Joe Peter | nayka tənəs-man                                                                                                                                                                       |
| J14:38      | Joe Peter | You are young as I was when I was young                                                                                                                                               |
| J14:37      | Joe Peter | JP: [dileyt] [dilit] mayka kakwa <kakwa> nayka anqati [Note: clearuvular on "anqati"]                                                                                             |
| J14:41      | Joe Peter | They remained there and the children grew up                                                                                                                                          |
| J14:44      | Joe Peter | yaka mən Peter' upá pi ukuk tənəs k <sup>h</sup> anawi ʔaska chaku-hayash                                                                                                             |
| J14:49      | Joe Peter | When his father-in-law said to him                                                                                                                                                    |
| J14:51      | Joe Peter | ukuk yaka Peter' ya/ wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaxka                                                                                                                                    |
| J14:55      | Joe Peter | Go to the market and bring me their hoops                                                                                                                                             |
| J14:58      | Joe Peter | JP: <mayka man> mayka ʔatwa <<k <sup>h</sup> upa uk>> k <sup>h</sup> anawi/ anqatihaxh-tili Peter' muk-chaku ʔaska/ skukúm [Note: possibly mixingup "skukúm" with "iʔlakum"?] |
| J15:08      | Joe Peter | He went                                                                                                                                                                               |
| J15:09      | Joe Peter | ukuk tənəs-man yaka ʔatwa                                                                                                                                                             |

|                         |                                                                           |                                                                              |
|-------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: a long time he went |                                                                           |                                                                              |
| JP:13                   | yaka Joe Peter                                                            |                                                                              |
| JM:15                   | nally he entered the country of the supernatural people                   |                                                                              |
| JP: 15:18               | yaka.. alta at.. alta atJoe Peteranqati skukúm-tilixam            | qi yaka q'u? k <sup>h</sup> upá k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk k <sup>h</sup> anawi |
| JM:25                   | they stood in a circle                                                    |                                                                              |
| JP: 15:27               | task(a) k <sup>h</sup> anawiJoe Peter"task-k <sup>h</sup> anawi"] | mitxwit k <sup>h</sup> upá [Note: sounds like                                |
| JM:30                   | he hopped was being rolled to and fro in the circle                       |                                                                              |
| JP:35                   | uk {Joe Peter} [lu?lu?] -stik k <sup>h</sup> upá                          |                                                                              |
| JM:41                   | he was afraid to approach them any nearer                                 |                                                                              |
| JP:44                   | yaka [kwa?le'was] chaku <<k <sup>h</sup> upa>> tənəs/ wik-saya            |                                                                              |
| JM:49                   | and stood in a circle                                                     |                                                                              |
| JP:50                   | yaka mjo Peter k <sup>h</sup> upá                                         |                                                                              |
| JM:53                   | when it grew dark                                                         |                                                                              |
| JP:54                   | <ya Joe Peter> tənchi yaka chaku-pulak <sup>h</sup> li                    |                                                                              |
| JM:57                   | he made a map                                                             |                                                                              |
| JP:58                   | yaka sjo Peter                                                            |                                                                              |
| JM:00                   | and caught the hoop                                                       |                                                                              |
| JP:03                   | kam {Joe Peter} [lu?lu?] -stik                                            |                                                                              |
| JM:04                   | by pushing his arm through it                                             |                                                                              |
| JP:05                   | kaag disk Peter k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka lima                              |                                                                              |
| JM:08                   | when he ran away                                                          |                                                                              |
| JP:09                   | yaka [kəli?keri] saya                                                     |                                                                              |
| JM:10                   | larrying to the map with him                                              |                                                                              |
| JP:14                   | yaka [Joe Peter] > lolo-stik/ k <sup>h</sup> anumakwst yaxka              |                                                                              |

|                                  |                                                                                                                                                    |                                                               |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: the people lit their torches |                                                                                                                                                    |                                                               |
| JP:2116:21                   | Joe PeterJohn Marr                                                                                                                             | tsaka mamuk-paya k <sup>h</sup> anawi taska/ {sticks} [stik]  |
| JP:2816:28                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          |                                                               |
| JP:3116:31                   | Joe Peter                                                                                                                                          | k <sup>h</sup> uli  [kuri] yaxka                              |
| JM: 16:33John Marr           | they chased him for a long time [Note: text says "they pursued him a long distance"]                                                               |                                                               |
| JP:3616:36                   | Joe Peter                                                                                                                                          | k <sup>h</sup> uli  [kuri] yaxka/ saya < ileyi  [ili?i]>      |
| JP:4016:40                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          | when his wife thought of him                                  |
| JP:4216:42                   | Joe Peter                                                                                                                                          | kəmtəks yaxka                                                 |
| JP:4616:46                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          | and told her children                                         |
| JP:4816:48                   | Joe Peter                                                                                                                                          | tsaka tənəs k <sup>h</sup> anawi                              |
| JP:5116:51                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          | whip yohng father                                             |
| JP:5316:53                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          | tsaka/  chop <sup>h</sup> a  [chup]                           |
| JP:5816:58                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          | they took him and whipped him                                 |
| JP:6317:03                   | Joe Peter                                                                                                                                          | tsaka tsə pik pi <<mamuk->> kakshət yaka/ chop <sup>h</sup> a |
| JP:6817:08                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          | when he urinated                                              |
| JP:7017:09                   | Joe Peter                                                                                                                                          | tsaka hayu pi yaka//                                          |
| JM: 17:18John Marr           | <<it stands for/means piss>> [Note: poor audio, microphone covered, "offline explanation"]                                                         |                                                               |
| JP: 17:22Joe Peter           | {concentrate that}// yaka hayu-k <sup>h</sup> lay pi yaka mamuk-tsəq[Note: use of "tsəq" instead of typical "chək"]                            |                                                               |
| JP:3317:33                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          | beginning                                                     |
| JP:3517:35                   | Joe Peter                                                                                                                                          | tsaka hayu tsas  [snas] alta                                  |
| JP:3717:37                   | John Marr                                                                                                                                          | and the fire of the supernatural people were extinguished     |
| JP: 17:41Joe Peter           | ukuk k <sup>h</sup> a.. k <sup>h</sup> anawi <<ukuk k <sup>h</sup> anawi>> <yaka stik k <sup>h</sup> upa>hayash skukum tilixam yaka chaku-hilu |                                                               |

|                                                                            |                                                                                    |                                                                                 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: then th.. the son-in-law reached home                                  |                                                                                    |                                                                                 |
| JP: 17:57Joe Peterejective on "k'ilapay"]                          | <tənas> tənəs-man yaka chaku-k'ilapay [Note: clear                                 |                                                                                 |
| JM: 02                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | After a while the old man said again                                            |
| JP: 04                                                                     | Joe Peter                                                                          | qi al tae k'ewawa ukuk olman                                                    |
| JM: 08                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | Now go and bring me the targets of the supernatural people                      |
| JP: 18:12Joe Peter<<k <sup>h</sup> upa-uk>>/ skukum tilixam anqati | <mayka> †atwa mamuk-k'ilapay ukuk yaka/ yaka stik-təmtəm                           |                                                                                 |
| JM: 18                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | He made himself ready and went                                                  |
| JP: 23                                                                     | Joe Peter                                                                          | akaad <Pater yak(a)> mamuk-†ush yaka †atwa                                      |
| JM: 26                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | After a short time he reached the country of the supernatural people            |
| JP: 18:30Joe Petertilixam                                          | lili yaka †atwa <<pi alta>> ukuk/ q <sup>h</sup> a k <sup>h</sup> upá ukuk/ skukum |                                                                                 |
| JM: 52                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | They were looking at the targets                                                |
| JP: 40                                                                     | Joe Peter                                                                          | aska joer p'hu  [p'u] k <sup>h</sup> upa uk stik saya [Note: clear "uk"]        |
| JM: 43                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | He was afraid                                                                   |
| JP: 44                                                                     | Joe Peter                                                                          | aka k'wa p'Note: clear glottalization]                                          |
| JM: 46                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | But when he hit the dark                                                        |
| JP: 51                                                                     | Joe Peter                                                                          | aka c'wak'et lak <sup>h</sup> li                                                |
| JM: 53                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | He took the targets and ran away                                                |
| JP: 02                                                                     | Joe Peter                                                                          | aka iska k'uk stik k <sup>h</sup> anawi pi yaka †atwa/ saya                     |
| JM: 07                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | They were looking at the targets                                                |
| JP: 19                                                                     | Joe Peter                                                                          | aska joer p'hu  [p'u] k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk <ya..>/ stik k <sup>h</sup> anawi |
| JM: 23                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | But he ran away with <him/it>                                                   |
| JP: 25                                                                     | Joe Peter                                                                          | upa k'ek'upa ukuk kuli/ saya                                                    |
| JM: 29                                                                     | John Marr                                                                          | The supernatural people lit their torches and chased him                        |

|                                                                                                               |                                                                                                     |                                                       |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: ukuk k <sup>h</sup> anawi/ skukum tilixam †aska mamuk-paya †aska stik {uh}/ kuli k <sup>h</sup> upa yaxka |                                                                                                     |                                                       |
| JP:41                                                                                                         | he came                                                                                             | John Marr                                             |
| JP:42                                                                                                         | aka h <sup>h</sup> aya                                                                              | Joe Peter                                             |
| JP:44                                                                                                         | he was                                                                                              | John Marr                                             |
| JP:46                                                                                                         | aska [chup <sup>h</sup> a] / †aska                                                                  | tiki iskam yaka [Note: compare tq'ix]                 |
| JP:49                                                                                                         | after so                                                                                            | John Marr                                             |
| JP:50                                                                                                         | nəs-                                                                                                | Joe Peter                                             |
| JP:52                                                                                                         | is wife                                                                                             | John Marr of him                                      |
| JP:54                                                                                                         | †aska [chup <sup>h</sup> a] / təmtəm                                                                | k <sup>h</sup> upa yaxka                              |
| JP:57                                                                                                         | nd to                                                                                               | John Marr children                                    |
| JP:59                                                                                                         | aka wəwə                                                                                            | Joe Peter yaka tənəs k <sup>h</sup> anawi             |
| JP:01                                                                                                         | ow wh                                                                                               | John Marr grandfather                                 |
| JP:20:03                                                                                                      | JP: <alta msayka mamuk.. alta> msayka kakshət uk maykaJoe Peter[chup <sup>h</sup> a] [chup] |                                                       |
| JP:06                                                                                                         | hey to                                                                                              | John Marr and whipped him                             |
| JP:08                                                                                                         | aska [chup <sup>h</sup> a] / †aska                                                                  | iskam stik kakshət †aska [chup <sup>h</sup> a] [chup] |
| JP:10                                                                                                         | their m                                                                                             | John Marr helped them                                 |
| JP:13                                                                                                         | aska [chup <sup>h</sup> a] / †aska                                                                  | †aska <mamuk> yaxka                                   |
| JP:17                                                                                                         | the old                                                                                             | John Marr rated                                       |
| JP:19                                                                                                         | [ya/yo] / †aska                                                                                     | uk ulman yaka mamuk-[tsuk] [tsəq <sup>w</sup> ]       |
| JP:23                                                                                                         | bega                                                                                                | John Marr                                             |
| JP:26                                                                                                         | yaka [chup <sup>h</sup> a] / †aska                                                                  | shnas [snas] alta                                     |
| JP:29                                                                                                         | nd this                                                                                             | John Marr the torches of the supernatural people      |
| JP:32                                                                                                         | JP: [intelligible] interrupted by end of recording]                                                 |                                                       |
|                                                                                                               |                                                                                                     |                                                       |