

Joe Peter Project: 682-S2

|       |           |                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 00:20 | John Marr | He spoke to the old man                                                                                                                         |
| 00:24 | Joe Peter | It pulled a wawa k <sup>n</sup> upa ukuk ulman                                                                                                  |
| 00:31 | John Marr | He spoke long time                                                                                                                              |
| 00:34 | Joe Peter | yayayaaa> lili [have we seen this before]                                                                                                    |
| 00:38 | John Marr | It became nearly day                                                                                                                            |
| 00:40 | Joe Peter | Ita yaka t <sup>n</sup> uk-wik-saya san ["yaka" for "it"]                                                                                       |
| 00:43 | John Marr | He old man sleep                                                                                                                                |
| 00:45 | Joe Peter | JP: <ya> ulman yaka/ t <sup>n</sup> ux-miməlus(t)/ ya.. [JM starts to talk] yakat <sup>n</sup> ux <<{uh}>>/ musum ended here 1/20** |
| 00:56 | John Marr | Then he and his sister                                                                                                                          |
| 00:58 | Joe Peter | yaka wawa t <sup>n</sup> upa yaka ats                                                                                                           |
| 01:01 | John Marr | Arise! Now we will burn them.                                                                                                                   |
| 01:04 | Joe Peter | Ita mayka t <sup>n</sup> uk-wit nisayka mamuk-paya t <sup>n</sup> aska alta                                                                     |
| 01:11 | John Marr | He arose and left the house                                                                                                                     |
| 01:14 | Joe Peter | JP: yaka mitxwit pi yaka mash ukuk haws/ <pi yaka t <sup>n</sup> a...> [JM starts to speak] t <sup>n</sup> atwa t <sup>n</sup> axani            |
| 01:21 | John Marr | Her daughter also arose and went out                                                                                                            |
| 01:24 | Joe Peter | JP: yakaaa tənəs-tuchmən <<yaxka wəxt>> <mitayt> [for "mitxwit"?] pi yaka t <sup>n</sup> atwa t <sup>n</sup> axani                              |
| 01:31 | John Marr | Then he went to the pitchwood                                                                                                                   |
| 01:34 | Joe Peter | Ita yaka t <sup>n</sup> uk-paya ukuk lakum-stik                                                                                                 |
| 01:38 | John Marr | He went out                                                                                                                                     |
| 01:40 | Joe Peter | yaxka t <sup>n</sup> atwa t <sup>n</sup> axani                                                                                                  |
| 01:42 | John Marr | Now the house began to burn                                                                                                                     |
| 01:45 | Joe Peter | Ita ukuk yaka/ hayash paya                                                                                                                      |

|                      |                                                                                                                          |                                                    |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| JM: the old man said |                                                                                                                          |                                                    |
| JP1:51               | ukuk ul Joe Peter                                                                                                        | yaka wawa                                          |
| JP1:54               | brother John                                                                                                             | Marrise!                                           |
| JP1:56               | ukuk < Joe Peter                                                                                                         | ukuk <<nayka aw miṭ..>>                            |
| JP1:59               | we are going to                                                                                                          | be burnt                                           |
| JP2:03               | blank                                                                                                                    | John Marr                                          |
| JP: 02:11            | alta uk.. ukuk manJoe Peteralta nisayka chaku-paya                                                               | ukuk> nayka aw <alta mayka miṭayt>                 |
| JP2:16               | he arose and                                                                                                             | found the door was locked                          |
| JP: 02:23            | yaka yaka mi.. yaka miṭayt pi yaka t'ṭap ukuk lapot// iṣpúy                                                              |                                                    |
| [Note: JP2:23]       | [Note: JP2:23] possibly is mixing up "mitxwit" and "miṭayt" in this section]                                             |                                                    |
| JP2:34               | how he found                                                                                                             | Marr and his son were burnt                        |
| JP2:38// 01:49       | Joe PeterJohn Marr                                                                                                   |                                                    |
| JP2:45               | how he found                                                                                                             | Marr and his son were burnt                        |
| JP2:48               | alta ukuk Joe Peter                                                                                                      | yaka pi yaka hayash tēnas tēnəs-man ṭaska paya     |
| JP2:54               | then she                                                                                                                 | searched for her uncles                            |
| JP: 02:59            | alta yaka/ hayu-nanichJoe Peter"hayu-"]                                                                          | k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka chupa [Note: imperfective] |
| JP3:05               | he found                                                                                                                 | John Marr in the woods                             |
| JP: 03:08            | yaka t'ṭap ṭaska k <sup>h</sup> upa <hayas [hayash]> stik/ saya [Note: either "hayash" or "k <sup>h</sup> upaaasssstik"] |                                                    |
| JP3:12               | and carried                                                                                                              | John Marr to the water                             |
| JP3:14               | yaka iṣpúy Joe Peter                                                                                                     | k <sup>h</sup> upa <hayash>/ chək                  |
| JP3:19               | he blew                                                                                                                  | John Marr water on the bodies                      |
| JP3:24               | yaka mamuk                                                                                                               | Joe Peter. yaka mamuk//                            |
|                      |                                                                                                                          |                                                    |

|                                                                                                                                                                           |  |  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
| JM: then they all arose                                                                                                                                                   |  |  |
| JP: yaka mamuk <<t'ux/chək>> <<yaka>> mamuk03:54 <<t'ux/chək>> Peter k'hupa ukuk> chək pi †aska/ alta <..> †askamitxwit [check this against next recording] |  |  |
| JP: 40 they were John Marr                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| JP: 42 aska Joe Peter                                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
| JP: 44 they were John Marr distance                                                                                                                                       |  |  |
| JP: 46 aska Joe Peter ya                                                                                                                                                  |  |  |
| JP: 48 and came John Marr lake                                                                                                                                            |  |  |
| JP: 50 a.. chək Peter k'hupa hayaaash/ leyk/ chək                                                                                                                         |  |  |
| JP: 52 they bathed John Marr the lake                                                                                                                                     |  |  |
| JP: 54 q'ha> Joe Peter wash k'hupa ukuk leyk/ ukuk chək                                                                                                                   |  |  |
| JP: 10 how they were John Marr their sister dived and said                                                                                                                |  |  |
| JP: 31 yaka ukuk. Marralta> ukuk †aska ats miməlus pi yaka wawa [note:JP: 12 hears "died" instead of "dived". May not be following along thetext at this point]   |  |  |
| JP: 24 shall I do? Marr                                                                                                                                                   |  |  |
| JP: 26 yaka Joe Peter kikwəli k'hupa ukuk chək                                                                                                                            |  |  |
| JP: 30 the brother John Marr replied [does JP hear "revived"?]                                                                                                            |  |  |
| JP: ukuk.. ukuk k'hanawi <nsayka/yaka> aw <<ats/†..>> †aska04:33 chək Joe Peter †aska mi†ayt alta [note: JP seems to hear"revived"]                               |  |  |
| JP: 42 yes, did John Marr                                                                                                                                                 |  |  |
| JP: 44 yeah Joe Peter <(k)ikwəli>                                                                                                                                         |  |  |
| JP: 46 she dived John Marr                                                                                                                                                |  |  |
| JP: 50 yaka Joe Peter kikwəli                                                                                                                                             |  |  |

|                    |                               |                                                                     |
|--------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: shall I dive?  |                               |                                                                     |
| JP: 04:57"na"] | na ʔatwa kikwəliJoe Peter | <k <sup>h</sup> upa uk(uk)> chək [question particle                 |
| 05:00              | Yes dive                      | John Marr                                                           |
| 05:02              | [aha]                         | Joe Peter kikwəli k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk chək                      |
| 05:05              | Do I look pretty              | John Marr in this lake?                                             |
| 05:08              | ayka Joe/ Peter               | k <sup>h</sup> upa-nanich k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk hayash leyk/ chək |
| 05:14              | Yes you look                  | John Marr pretty in this lake                                       |
| 05:20              | awitkən                       | Joe Peter nanich ʔush                                               |
| 05:23              | Then she                      | John Marr again                                                     |
| 05:25              | Next you                      | Joe Peter wawa kikwəli                                              |
| 05:27              | After she                     | John Marr lived three times                                         |
| 05:30              | aka {Joe} Peter               | wawa kikwəli ʔun                                                    |
| 05:35              | hair be                       | John Marr now on her                                                |
| 05:36              | ayka/ Joe Peter               | wəxt {uh} tipsu chaku                                               |
| 05:49              | he said                       | John Marr                                                           |
| 05:52              | ayka Joe Peter                | wawa                                                                |
| 05:56              | Do I look pretty              | John Marr in this lake?                                             |
| 05:58              | ayka Joe Peter                | nanich k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk leyk                                 |
| 06:02              | h no                          | John Marr                                                           |
| 06:04              | Weyk                          | Joe Peter                                                           |
| 06:06              | You do not                    | John Marr do not look pretty in this lake                           |
| 06:11              | Wik mayka Peter               | h-k <sup>h</sup> upa-nanich                                         |
| 06:14              | Why did you                   | John Marr why did you not tell me before                            |
| 06:18              | ʔata Joe Peter                | wawa anqati                                                         |
| 06:21              | How she                       | John Marr lived five/ five times                                    |

|                                                                 |           |                                                                                                                 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: yaka ʔatwa kikwəli kʰupa ukuk chək [qʰwinəm] [qwinəm] tʰaym |           |                                                                                                                 |
| 06:31                                                           | John Marr | and she remained always in the lake                                                                             |
| 06:34                                                           | Joe Peter | ʔatwa ʔatwa miʔayt kwanisim                                                                                     |
| 06:37                                                           | John Marr | monster                                                                                                         |
| 06:39                                                           | John Marr | ʔatwa ʔatwa kukúk                                                                                               |
| 06:42                                                           | John Marr | only their neice along                                                                                          |
| 06:47                                                           | John Marr | [Silence] MSWITCH TO JP                                                                                   |
| 07:25                                                           | John Marr | can't you get the word neice                                                                                    |
| 07:27                                                           | John Marr | [Silence] MSWITCH TO JP                                                                                   |
| 07:34                                                           | John Marr | we'll skip this/ they arrived at their house and stayed there                                                   |
| 07:40                                                           | Joe Peter | ʔatwa ʔatwa k'ilapay kʰupa ʔaska haws alta <pi> miʔayt                                                          |
| 07:49                                                           | John Marr | now all the people wanted to marry the girl                                                                     |
| 07:53                                                           | Joe Peter | ʔatwa kʰupa ʔatwa ʔaska tiki iskam ukuk tənəs-ʔuchmən                                                           |
| 07:56                                                           | John Marr | but the old man did not give her away                                                                           |
| 08:02                                                           | Joe Peter | ukuk ʔatwa wik yaka [patʔach] [paʔach] yaxka                                                                    |
| 08:06                                                           | John Marr | finally John married her                                                                                        |
| 08:08                                                           | Joe Peter | ukuk haws ʔatwa yaka iskam yaxka                                                                                |
| 08:10                                                           | John Marr | then she married with him                                                                                       |
| 08:15                                                           | Joe Peter | yaxka ʔatwa ʔatwa yaxka lili                                                                                    |
| 08:19                                                           | John Marr | [Silence]                                                                                                       |
| 08:34                                                           | John Marr | you.. you didn't remember blue-jay did you                                                                      |
| 08:38                                                           | Joe Peter | {could not answer that}                                                                                         |
| 08:45                                                           | John Marr | [Silence]                                                                                                       |
| 09:27                                                           | John Marr | now the old man is discontented because she never laughed                                                       |
| JP: 09:41                                                       | Joe Peter | ukuk kəlakəla <wik> kəlakəla/ ʔush-təmtəm pus wik yaka/ hihi[note: Joe dropped "wik" for "wik ʔush-təmtəm"] |

|                                          |                                                                                                  |  |
|------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: after a time she said to her husband |                                                                                                  |  |
| JP: 5209:52                          | qi/ tənəs-pitepi yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka manJoe Peter                              |  |
| JP: 5909:59                          | am getting tired [change audio length]Marr                                             |  |
| JP: 6210:02                          | .. alta yaka [audio cut-off]Joe Peter                                                        |  |
| JM: 0310:03                          | blankJohn Marr                                                                               |  |
| JM: 0810:08                          | so far awayJohn Marr                                                                         |  |
| JP: 10:1710:17                       | alta mayka mash nayka tatwa saya [northern dialect exampleof "mash" as "leave"]Joe Peter |  |
| JM: 2110:21                          | then I shall laughJohn Marr                                                                  |  |
| JP: 2410:24                          | upá/ Joe Peter nayka hihiJoe Peter                                                           |  |
| JM: 2810:28                          | no, don't laughJohn Marr                                                                     |  |
| JP: 3110:31                          | wik wika Peter<la..>/ wik mayka hihi altaJoe Peter                                           |  |
| JM: 3510:35                          | after some time she said againJohn Marr                                                      |  |
| JP: 4210:38                          | alta tənəs-marr. tənəs-anqati <wəxt> tənəs-lili pi <tas..> yakaJoe Peter<wawa>/ wəxt     |  |
| JM: 4610:46                          | am getting tiredMarr                                                                         |  |
| JP: 5710:57                          | alta> Joe Peter chaku-thil [note: JP says "thili"]Joe Peter                                  |  |
| JM: 0011:00                          | then her husband repliedJohn Marr                                                            |  |
| JP: 11:0411:04                       | alta yaka <<man>> alta yaka <<man ya wawa>> [majoraudio distortion]Joe Peter             |  |
| JM: 0811:08                          | well then I knowJohn Marr                                                                    |  |
| JP: 1011:10                          | hi altaJoe Peter                                                                             |  |
| JM: 1411:14                          | she saidJohn Marr                                                                            |  |
| JP: 1711:17                          | yaka wawaJoe Peter                                                                           |  |
| JM: 11:1911:19                       | I will laugh because/ the bird/ I will laugh because the bird makes metiredJohn Marr     |  |

|                                                                                              |                                                                               |  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JP: nayka/ <<{oh now}>> nayka/ hihi/ {'cause} ukuk tayi yaka mamuk-/ t <sup>h</sup> il nayka |                                                                               |  |
| JM:39                                                                                        | Go into the woods                                                             |  |
| JP: 11:42"k <sup>h</sup> upa"]                                                           | <mayka> ʔatwa k <sup>h</sup> upá stik [might be dragging out "a" on Joe Peter |  |
| JM:45                                                                                        | He down John Marr knees                                                       |  |
| JP:46                                                                                        | ʔatayt Joe Peter ʔatayt k <sup>h</sup> upa mayka//                            |  |
| JM:54                                                                                        | And you John Marr                                                             |  |
| JM:19                                                                                        | And close John Marr                                                           |  |
| JP:23                                                                                        | ʔamuk Joe Peter                                                               |  |
| JM:45                                                                                        | What's John Marr for ears in yours                                            |  |
| JP:48                                                                                        | ʔwələ John Peter [adjective]                                                  |  |
| JM:50                                                                                        | What's good enough then early in the morning                                  |  |
| JP: 12:28northern]                                                                       | ukuk tənə.. ukuk/ hayash tənəs-san [hayash used for very. Joe Peter           |  |
| JM:58                                                                                        | She went to Mathe                                                             |  |
| JP:09                                                                                        | ʔa yaka Joe Peter wa-wash                                                     |  |
| JM:03                                                                                        | She took John Marr and combed herself                                         |  |
| JP: 13:05<<yaka>> k <sup>h</sup> um yaka latet                                           | ya ya yaxka mamuk yaka <<mamuk/lu..>> lulu k <sup>h</sup> um Joe Peter        |  |
| JM:13                                                                                        | Then she John Marr out                                                        |  |
| JP:15                                                                                        | ʔta yaka Joe Peter                                                            |  |
| JM:17                                                                                        | Now she John Marr                                                             |  |
| JP:19                                                                                        | ʔta yaka Joe Peter                                                            |  |
| JM:21                                                                                        | Where John Marr bird                                                          |  |
| JP:23                                                                                        | ʔa mayka Joe Peter kəla                                                       |  |

|                       |                                                                                                           |                                                                      |
|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: now I shall laugh |                                                                                                           |                                                                      |
| JP: 27                | alta naye Peter                                                                                           | ayka hini                                                            |
| JM: 30                | she laughs                                                                                                | John Marr                                                            |
| JP: 32                | ayka hini                                                                                                 | Peter                                                                |
| JM: 33                | then she said                                                                                             | Mal' of her husband's people                                         |
| JP: 37                | anawyo Peter                                                                                              | yaka man yaka tilixam                                                |
| JM: 41                | in the afternoon                                                                                          | Marr                                                                 |
| JP: 13:44             | alta <pi> mash sitkum san ["mash" used for "left behind" or "parted ways"]                                | Joe Peter                                                            |
| JM: 45                | she came                                                                                                  | John Marr                                                            |
| JP: 51                | ayka hini                                                                                                 | Peter..> // yaka chaku-kəmtəks wəxt                                  |
| JM: 03                | and voice                                                                                                 | John Marr                                                            |
| JP: 14:06             | ayka mash k <sup>h</sup> anawi                                                                            | ayka mash k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka lapush k <sup>h</sup> anawi        |
| UK: 25                | {bones} Marr                                                                                              |                                                                      |
| JM: 15                | she searched                                                                                              | John Marr                                                            |
| JP: 14:20             | yaka t'4ap k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka <ma..> pi yaka nanich <k <sup>h</sup> upa> yaka man pi hilu yaka t'4ap | Joe Peter                                                            |
| JM: 26                | then she said                                                                                             | John Marr                                                            |
| JP: 32                | ayka hini                                                                                                 | Peter.. {bones} k <sup>h</sup> upa k <sup>h</sup> anawi yaka tilixam |
| JM: 36                | Silence                                                                                                   | John Marr                                                            |
| JM: 56                | she found                                                                                                 | John Marr                                                            |
| JP: 52                | ayka hini                                                                                                 | Peter> [near end of pg.19]                                           |
| JM: 54                | but his legs                                                                                              | Marr                                                                 |
| JM: 59                | Silence                                                                                                   | John Marr                                                            |
| JP: 12                | anawyo Peter                                                                                              | leph <sup>h</sup> iye  [lip <sup>h</sup> yi]/ hilu                   |
| JM: 15                | she put                                                                                                   | John Marr                                                            |

|                                                      |           |                                                                    |
|------------------------------------------------------|-----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: yaxka mamuk-miʔayt yaxka kʰupa <<ukuk>> {basket} |           |                                                                    |
| JM:43                                                | Joe Peter | and mgoed a short distance                                         |
| JP:46                                                | Joe Peter | wik-saya                                                           |
| JM:52                                                | Joe Peter | he made a house and lived there                                    |
| JP:57                                                | Joe Peter | he said he was pi yaka miʔayt kʰupá                                |
| JM:00                                                | Joe Peter | after some time                                                    |
| JP:03                                                | Joe Peter | he said                                                            |
| JM:06                                                | Joe Peter | he fell sick and gave birth to two boys                            |
| JP: 16:10                                            | Joe Peter | yaka chaku-sik pi yaka.. <yaka> tʰap makwst tənəs/ tənəs-man       |
| JM:18                                                | Joe Peter | when he became older                                               |
| JP:22                                                | Joe Peter | yaka he said                                                       |
| JM:25                                                | Joe Peter | he said to him                                                     |
| JP:28                                                | Joe Peter | yaka wəwə ʔəpa ʔaaska [ʔaska]                                      |
| JM:30                                                | Joe Peter | he went up the river                                               |
| JP: 16:33                                            | Joe Peter | wik ʔatwa.. wik mayka ʔatwa saxali <yakwa> kʰupa <uk> chək/ saya   |
| JM:39                                                | Joe Peter | you must go DOWN the river                                         |
| JP: 16:42                                            | Joe Peter | yaka mayka ʔatwa kikwəli kʰupa ukuk chək [kʰupa-ukuk contraction?] |
| JM:45                                                | Joe Peter | they died                                                          |
| JP:47                                                | Joe Peter | aska he said                                                       |
| JM:49                                                | Joe Peter | when they became older                                             |
| JP:52                                                | Joe Peter | aska he said                                                       |
| JM:54                                                | Joe Peter | he old brother said to his/ brother                                |
| JP: ukuk                                             | {uh} //   | ukuk ulman yaka <<hayu->> wawa kʰupa <yaka                         |

|                                                                                                                                                       |                |                                               |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| wawa> k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka tənəs-aw                                                                                                                |                |                                               |
| JM:07                                                                                                                                                 | Let us go home |                                               |
| JP:09                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | təta ntəy kətwa saxali                        |
| JM:13                                                                                                                                                 | one day        | yothe yəwənt                                  |
| JP:15                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | təta ntəy kətwa                               |
| JM:18                                                                                                                                                 | and they       | yəfəwənt bones of people                      |
| JP: 17:21 taska t'tap <<hayuuu>> {bones} k <sup>h</sup> upa anqati tilixamJoe Peter[possible audio distortion in "hayuuu"]                    |                |                                               |
| JM:26                                                                                                                                                 | Let us go home |                                               |
| JP: yaka wawa <<ixt tən... ...>> tətwa/ k <sup>h</sup> upa haws/ k'ilapay[possible audio distortion (see double brackets). near bottom of pg. 19] |                |                                               |
| JM:35                                                                                                                                                 | they reached   | yothe yəwənt their home                       |
| JP:35                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | taska/ Joe Peter k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka haws |
| JM:41                                                                                                                                                 | and the        | yothe yəwənt mother said                      |
| JP:45                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | ukuk/ yəfəwənt {uh}/ ul aw yaka wawa          |
| JM:53                                                                                                                                                 | these          | yothe yəwənt people                           |
| JP:56                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | ukuk/ yəfəwənt tilixam                        |
| JM:06                                                                                                                                                 | how many       | yothe yəwənt have died?                       |
| JP:07                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | təta ntəy kətwa                               |
| JM:04                                                                                                                                                 | how they       | yothe yəwənt were                             |
| JP:07                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | təta ntəy kətwa                               |
| JM:10                                                                                                                                                 | one day        | yothe yəwənt bathed                           |
| JP:12                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | təta ntəy kətwa                               |
| JM:15                                                                                                                                                 | how they       | yothe yəwənt used a comb                      |
| JP:18                                                                                                                                                 | Joe Peter      | təta ntəy kətwa                               |

|                                                                                                 |                              |                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|
| JM: the older brother said                                                                      |                              |                                                     |
| J18:24                                                                                          | ukuk ayo Peter               | ka wawa                                             |
| J18:27                                                                                          | perhaps we will              | find a comb in that basket                          |
| J18:34                                                                                          | axti Joe Peter               | t'ap ukuk {comb} k <sup>h</sup> upa {basket} yawa   |
| J18:39                                                                                          | let us take down             | that basket                                         |
| J18:41                                                                                          | sayk <sup>h</sup> on Betek/  | kikwəli ukuk                                        |
| J18:45                                                                                          | now they took                | down the basket                                     |
| J18:47                                                                                          | aska Joe Peter               | kikwəli ukuk {basket}                               |
| J18:50                                                                                          | and took down                | mountain goat blanket                               |
| JP: †aska mamuk-chaku <skin> †aska †atwa pus wawa ENDED18:53 Joe PeterHERE 2/3/25 |                              |                                                     |
| J18:59                                                                                          | now they found               | a person in that bla.. in that basket               |
| J19:05                                                                                          | ukuk Joe Peter               |                                                     |
| J19:08                                                                                          | found a person               | Marr in that basket [pg 20]                         |
| J19:10                                                                                          | aska Joe Peter               | †aska t'ap tilixam k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk {basket} |
| J19:16                                                                                          | he said John                 | Marr                                                |
| J19:18                                                                                          | aska wawa                    | Joe Peter                                           |
| J19:19                                                                                          | oh my child                  | Marr                                                |
| J19:21                                                                                          | ukuk k <sup>h</sup> on Peter | ayka tēnas                                          |
| J19:24                                                                                          | your mother                  | the Marr                                            |
| J19:26                                                                                          | ayka Joe Peter               | mama yaka masachi                                   |
| J19:30                                                                                          | you see                      | John Marr                                           |
| J19:32                                                                                          | ayka Joe Peter               | ayka                                                |
| J19:34                                                                                          | am on John                   | Marr                                                |
| J19:36                                                                                          | apit ukuk Peter              | ayka                                                |
| J19:38                                                                                          | quick hang                   | Marr up again                                       |

|                                  |           |                                                     |
|----------------------------------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------|
| JP: ayaq mamuk-saxali nayka wəxt |           |                                                     |
| 19:44                            | John      | Else your mother will come and devour us            |
| JP: 19:47nsayka              | Joe Peter | <<{uh}>> †aska <mayka> mama yaka chaku <yaka t'†ap> |
| 19:53                            | John      | They took the father and hung him up again          |
| JP: 19:56mamuk-saxali wəxt   | Joe Peter | <<alta>> †aska iskam †aska papa pi <<†aska>>        |
| 19:41                            | Joe Peter |                                                     |