

Joe Peter Project: 693-S2

|                |           |                                               |
|----------------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------|
| 00:17JP:17 | John Marr | that bird looked back                         |
| 00:19JP:19 | Joe Peter | yaka nanich-k'ilapay                          |
| 00:23JP:23 | John Marr | in place of the boy there were only bones     |
| 00:26JP:26 | Joe Peter | miməlust k'hupá>                              |
| 00:31JP:31 | John Marr | to go down the river (and Blue-Jay was quiet) |
| 00:33JP:33 | Joe Peter | ikta yaka wawa                                |
| 00:41JP:41 | John Marr | and the boy was sitting there again           |
| 00:44JP:44 | Joe Peter | yaka miłayt wəxt k'hupá                       |
| 00:48JP:48 | John Marr | in a low voice                                |
| 00:52JP:52 | Joe Peter | yaka tənəs-man                                |
| 00:54JP:54 | John Marr | your weir                                     |
| 00:56JP:56 | Joe Peter | <mayka/mamuk/ukuk>> k'ilapay                  |
| 00:59JP:59 | John Marr |                                               |
| 01:01JP:01 | Joe Peter | is wawa                                       |
| 01:03JP:03 | John Marr |                                               |
| 01:04JP:04 | Joe Peter | yaka wawa                                     |
| 01:06JP:06 | John Marr |                                               |
| 01:07JP:07 | Joe Peter | oli k'hupa-ukuk chək                          |
| 01:10JP:10 | John Marr |                                               |
| 01:12JP:12 | Joe Peter | is wawa                                       |
| 01:13JP:13 | John Marr | in a loud voice                               |
| 01:15JP:15 | Joe Peter | k'hupa yaka hayash wawa                       |
| 01:18JP:18 | John Marr |                                               |

|                                    |                        |                                                                    |
|------------------------------------|------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: q <sup>h</sup> a alta yaxka    |                        |                                                                    |
| 01:22                              | John Marr              | and on the boat was there (in the stern of the canoe)              |
| 01:24                              | Joe Peter              | q tilay-miməlust alta k <sup>h</sup> upá                           |
| 01:28                              | John Marr              | the bird was there again                                           |
| 01:30                              | Joe Peter              | uk kə́k'ə́tə́ yaka haya?/ hilu-wawa wəxt                           |
| 01:32                              | John Marr              | and the boy was there again                                        |
| 01:36                              | Joe Peter              | ka nə́k'ə́tə́ pay pi uk tənəs-man wəxt yaka k <sup>h</sup> upá     |
| 01:40                              | John Marr              | low voice                                                          |
| 01:42                              | Joe Peter              | ka wə́k'ə́tə́ tənəs-wawa                                           |
| 01:45                              | John Marr              |                                                                    |
| 01:46                              | Joe Peter              | <yaka mayka uk k <sup>h</sup> ilta/k <sup>h</sup> imt'a kapak'uk>> |
| 01:48                              | John Marr              | here" says the boy                                                 |
| 01:50                              | Joe Peter              | ka tənəs-man                                                       |
| 01:52-01:20                        | John MarrJoe Peter | now they fish with their dipnets                                   |
| JP: 01:55taskataska dipnet | Joe Peter              | <<...>> alta taska mamuk samən <<k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk>>         |
| 02:00                              | John Marr              | the bird was in his net                                            |
| 02:03                              | Joe Peter              | ka tənəs yaka i/ iskam ikta k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka net            |
| 02:07                              | John Marr              | lifted                                                             |
| 02:09                              | Joe Peter              | ka mənə́tə́                                                        |
| 02:14                              | John Marr              | found two branches in his net                                      |
| 02:17                              | Joe Peter              | ka tənəs ixt tənəs lima-stik k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka net           |
| 02:21                              | John Marr              | he turned his net and threw it into the water                      |
| 02:23                              | Joe Peter              | ka mənə́tə́ net wəxt k <sup>h</sup> upa chək                       |
| 02:28                              | John Marr              | became full of leaves                                              |
| 02:30                              | Joe Peter              | ka chək'ə́tə́ ukuk k <sup>h</sup> anawi                            |
|                                    |                        |                                                                    |

|                                                     |           |                                                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: he turned his net and threw them into the water |           |                                                                                                |
| 02:37                                               | Joe Peter | yaka mash t'elapay yaka net pi yaka mash wəxt k'hupa chək                                      |
| 02:40                                               | John Mar  | it part of the Marves fell into the canoe                                                      |
| 02:44                                               | Joe Peter | t <<sitk Peter kuk, sitkum ukuk>> nawitka k'hupá kənim                                         |
| 02:50                                               | John Mar  | the boy gathered them up                                                                       |
| 02:52                                               | Joe Peter | uk t'elapay yaka iskam k'anawi                                                                 |
| 02:55                                               | John Mar  | then another branch came into the bird's net                                                   |
| 02:57                                               | Joe Peter | wa wəxt Peter wa t'ux k'hupa ukuk yaka net                                                     |
| 03:01                                               | John Mar  | he turned the net and threw it into the water                                                  |
| 03:03                                               | Joe Peter | yaka mash t'elapay ukuk pi yaka mash k'hupa chək                                               |
| 03:06                                               | John Mar  | he leaved it into it and he threw it into the water                                            |
| 03:10                                               | Joe Peter | JP: <<pi>> ukuk chaku wəxt k'hupa ukuk <<k'hupá/ikta/kənim>> piyaka mash taska k'hupa chək |
| 03:14                                               | John Mar  | all of the Marves fell into the canoe                                                          |
| 03:17                                               | Joe Peter | <<wəxt Peter uk(uk)>> yaka t'ux k'hupá ukuk kənim                                              |
| 03:19                                               | John Mar  | the boy gathered them up                                                                       |
| 03:21                                               | Joe Peter | uk t'elapay yaka iskam ukuk k'anawi                                                            |
| 03:27                                               | John Mar  | the bird was pleased with two of the branches                                                  |
| 03:30                                               | Joe Peter | uk t'elapay yaka tush-təmtəm yaka makwst tənəs lima-stik                                       |
| 03:34                                               | John Mar  | "will carry them home" he said                                                                 |
| 03:36                                               | Joe Peter | JP: <<alta/q'ha>> taska nayka <<mamuk uk q'o?>> k'hupa<<nayka/ukuk>> haws                  |
| 03:39                                               | John Mar  | the may used them for making fire                                                              |
| 03:41                                               | Joe Peter | taxti yaka Peter muk paya taska ukuk                                                           |
| 03:44                                               | John Mar  | these branches were large                                                                      |
| 03:46                                               | Joe Peter | wəxt all Peter tətəmtəm lima-stik taska tush                                                   |

|                                                   |           |                                                                                             |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: they arrived at home and went up to the house |           |                                                                                             |
| 03:54                                             | Joe Peter | yaka iska <<pi>> yaka tatwa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka haws                                    |
| 03:54                                             | Joe Peter |                                                                                             |
| 03:55                                             | Joe Peter | uk tənəs-man ukuk kəlákəlá tənəs-saliks                                                     |
| 03:58                                             | Joe Peter | because he had not caught anything                                                          |
| 04:00                                             | Joe Peter | because he had                                                                              |
| 04:00                                             | Joe Peter | hulu-ikta yaka iskam                                                                        |
| 04:00                                             | Joe Peter | they brought a mat full of trout up to the house                                            |
| 04:06                                             | Joe Peter | JP: uk tənəs-man yaka mamuk-k'ilapay p <sup>h</sup> at tiskwis k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka haws |
| 04:11                                             | Joe Peter | and the boy had roasted them                                                                |
| 04:13                                             | Joe Peter | JP: ukuk tilixam taska paya taska ukuk <<mək <sup>h</sup> mək/makuk>> paya-stik             |
| 04:21                                             | Joe Peter | then the boy had them                                                                       |
| 04:22                                             | Joe Peter | uk tənəs-man yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka                                              |
| 04:26                                             | Joe Peter | he threw away what we had caught                                                            |
| 04:29                                             | Joe Peter | mayka k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk kənim taxani yaka iskam                                       |
| 04:33                                             | Joe Peter | our canoe would have been full if he had not thrown it away                                 |
| 04:36                                             | Joe Peter | uk kənim p <sup>h</sup> at pus wik yaka mash taxani                                         |
| 04:40                                             | Joe Peter | his sister told him                                                                         |
| 04:41                                             | Joe Peter | yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaxka                                                          |
| 04:44                                             | Joe Peter | why did you throw away what you had caught?                                                 |
| 04:46                                             | Joe Peter | ata <<pi>> mayka mash ukuk ikta mayka iskam                                                 |
| 04:49                                             | Joe Peter | threw away because we had caught nothing but branches                                       |
| 04:52                                             | Joe Peter | JP: nayka mash ukuk pus hulu-ikta mamuk iskam. k <sup>h</sup> əpit ukuk lima-stik.          |
| 04:57                                             | Joe Peter | that is what she said                                                                       |

|                                           |                                                                                     |                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|
| JP: k <sup>h</sup> upá ukuk nsayka məkmək |                                                                                     |                                                     |
| 05:00                                     | you think Mary                                                                      | were leaves?                                        |
| 05:02                                     | yaka Joe Peter                                                                      | təm k <sup>h</sup> əltəs-ikta ukuk                  |
| 05:05                                     | those leaves                                                                        | the trout                                           |
| 05:07                                     | uk/ ukuk Peter                                                                      | yaka tənəs-samən                                    |
| 05:10                                     | the branch                                                                          | the salmon                                          |
| 05:11                                     | ukuk tə Joe Peter                                                                   | -stik yaka samən                                    |
| 05:14                                     | he said John                                                                        | the Master                                          |
| 05:16                                     | yaka wə Joe Peter                                                                   | pa yaka ats                                         |
| 05:18                                     | brought John                                                                        | the Mary                                            |
| 05:20                                     | yaka Joe Peter                                                                      | pa ma/ mayka makwst lima-stik                       |
| 05:23                                     | you may John                                                                        | the them                                            |
| 05:25                                     | yaka Joe Peter                                                                      | paya k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk                        |
| 05:28                                     | then his John                                                                       | the Peter                                           |
| 05:30                                     | ya yaka Joe Peter                                                                   | ka †atwa yawa k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk tən-chək      |
| 05:33                                     | now the John                                                                        | the two                                             |
| 05:37                                     | za k <sup>h</sup> upa Joe Peter                                                     | wst samən ukuk kənīm/ k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk kənīm |
| 05:41                                     | he carried John                                                                     | the them                                            |
| 05:42                                     | za yaka Joe Peter                                                                   | k <sup>h</sup> upa ukuk k <sup>h</sup> upa haws     |
| 05:45                                     | and she John                                                                        | the her                                             |
| 05:47                                     | JP: yaka q'u? yaka †atwa haws ukuk yaka mamuk-k'ilapay k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka lima |                                                     |
| 05:50                                     | then the John                                                                       | the him                                             |
| 05:53                                     | za kə Joe Peter                                                                     | yaka wawa                                           |
| 05:56                                     | where John                                                                          | the he                                              |
| 05:57                                     | upa q'u Joe Peter                                                                   | ka iskam ukuk samən kapshwala                       |

|                                        |           |                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------------------------------|-----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: "that is what you caught" she said |           |                                                                                                                                      |
| 06:02                                  | Joe Peter | uk ikta mayka iskam                                                                                                                  |
| 06:04                                  | John Mar  | y sister                                                                                                                             |
| 06:05                                  | Joe Peter | yaka t'əminxwət k <sup>h</sup> upa mayka                                                                                             |
| 06:08                                  | John Mar  | the bird went to the beach                                                                                                           |
| 06:10                                  | Joe Peter | wa xosəntuk kəlákəlá yaka tətwa <yawa> k <sup>h</sup> upa chək                                                                       |
| 06:14                                  | John Mar  | Here lay the Maroe of the ghosts                                                                                                     |
| 06:17                                  | Joe Peter | JP: q <sup>h</sup> a uk k <sup>h</sup> upá yaka miťayt ukuk kənim ukuk <<anqati/q <sup>h</sup> ata>>miməlust tilixam yaka kənim  |
| 06:22                                  | John Mar  | They had a bath and part of them were mossgrown                                                                                      |
| 06:28                                  | Joe Peter | JP: kənim taska mmm/ hilu p <sup>h</sup> at-ťxwap t'q'up-t'q'up. taska miťaytukuk hayu-ikta yaka chaku-hayash k <sup>h</sup> upá |
| 06:37                                  | John Mar  | He went to the house and said to his sister                                                                                          |
| 06:41                                  | Joe Peter | uk t'əmin mayka k <sup>h</sup> upa haws. yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka ats                                                       |
| 06:45                                  | John Mar  | our husband Maranoes are bad                                                                                                         |
| 06:48                                  | Joe Peter | uk mayka man yaka kənim/ mashachi alta                                                                                               |
| 06:54                                  | John Mar  | He quiet                                                                                                                             |
| 06:56                                  | Joe Peter | yaka yənik-wik-ikta wawa yaka wawa                                                                                                   |
| 06:58                                  | John Mar  | Be people become tired of you                                                                                                        |
| 07:01                                  | Joe Peter | uk tilixam mitxwit chaku t <sup>h</sup> il k <sup>h</sup> upa mayka                                                                  |
| 07:04                                  | John Mar  | He can't see these people are full of holes                                                                                          |
| 07:08                                  | Joe Peter | xt ukuk Retem ukuk tilixam t'q'up-p <sup>h</sup> at ťxwap                                                                            |
| 07:12                                  | John Mar  | Then his sister said to him                                                                                                          |
| 07:14                                  | Joe Peter | ta yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka                                                                                                 |
| 07:16                                  | John Mar  | Be they people?                                                                                                                      |
| 07:18                                  | Joe Peter | uk mayka tili/ tilixam/ k <sup>h</sup> anawi?                                                                                        |

|                     |           |                                                                                                         |
|---------------------|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: they are ghosts |           |                                                                                                         |
| 07:22               | Joe Peter | ta k <sup>h</sup> upá tēl <sup>h</sup> ust tilixam ukuk bons †aska                                      |
| 07:25               | John Marr | grew dark again                                                                                         |
| 07:27               | Joe Peter | ta yaka k <sup>h</sup> ac Peter pulak <sup>h</sup> li                                                   |
| 07:29               | John Marr | and the blind man made himself ready                                                                    |
| 07:31               | Joe Peter | ta uk <sup>h</sup> John Marr yaka mamuk-†ush                                                            |
| 07:33               | John Marr | and the boy made himself ready also                                                                     |
| 07:37               | Joe Peter | ta tēl <sup>h</sup> Joe Peter yaka mamuk †ush wəxt                                                      |
| 07:40               | John Marr | they were together                                                                                      |
| 07:42               | Joe Peter | ta wəxt <sup>h</sup> John Marr †atwa                                                                    |
| 07:44               | John Marr | now he was a boy                                                                                        |
| 07:47               | Joe Peter | ta yaka k <sup>h</sup> an Betieh ukuk tēnas-man                                                         |
| 07:49               | John Marr | when they were on their way he shouted                                                                  |
| 07:52               | Joe Peter | ta k <sup>h</sup> upá tēl <sup>h</sup> John Marr tēs-saya †aska p'u? yaka                               |
| 07:55               | John Marr | and on John Marr were there                                                                             |
| 07:57               | Joe Peter | ta tēl <sup>h</sup> John Marr k <sup>h</sup> upá <alta> k <sup>h</sup> upá                              |
| 07:59               | John Marr | he did this several times before he arrived                                                             |
| 08:04               | Joe Peter | JP: yaka mamuk alta q <sup>h</sup> ənchi-hayu/ <<iləp pus>> k'ilapay... q'u k <sup>h</sup> upá          |
| 08:09               | John Marr | now they fished with a dipnet                                                                           |
| 08:12               | Joe Peter | JP: alta †aska mi†ayt <<k <sup>h</sup> upá †atwa q'u? an†q>> †aska mamuk samən ukuk †aska dipnet        |
| 08:16               | John Marr | he gathered the branches and the leaves which he had caught                                             |
| 08:22               | Joe Peter | JP: alta †aska iskam ukuk k <sup>h</sup> anawi <<ukuk>> †aska iskam lima-stik k <sup>h</sup> anawi-ikta |
| 08:28               | John Marr | <and on the inside>> in their canoe was full                                                            |

|                                                                                                        |                                                               |  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JP: q <sup>h</sup> ənchi ukuk hayash chək chaku-k'ilapay †aska <<uk>> kənimp <sup>h</sup> at† alta |                                                               |  |
| 08:36                                                                                                  | Ben they home                                                 |  |
| 08:37                                                                                                  | †aska k'elapay k <sup>h</sup> upa †aska haws                  |  |
| 08:40                                                                                                  | ow he door                                                    |  |
| 08:42                                                                                                  | †aska Ben ukuk <<...>> alta miməlust tilixam ya kənim         |  |
| 08:47                                                                                                  | shouldn't as they met one                                     |  |
| 08:50                                                                                                  | †aska Peter <<k <sup>h</sup> upa>> †aska nanich ixt           |  |
| 08:54                                                                                                  | and on would be seen                                          |  |
| 08:56                                                                                                  | pit Joe Petera bons †aska nanich                              |  |
| 08:58                                                                                                  | they arrived home                                             |  |
| 09:00                                                                                                  | †aska Petera yaka haws                                        |  |
| 09:02                                                                                                  | went to his sister                                            |  |
| 09:04                                                                                                  | †aska Petera yaka ats                                         |  |
| 08:31                                                                                                  | Joe Peter                                                     |  |
| 09:06                                                                                                  | carried the salmon which he had caught                        |  |
| 09:08                                                                                                  | †aska Peter? yakwa uk samən †aska iskam mamuk-chaku           |  |
| 09:10                                                                                                  | the next morning                                              |  |
| 09:16                                                                                                  | <uku> Joe Peter                                               |  |
| 09:17                                                                                                  | the bird went to the town                                     |  |
| 09:18                                                                                                  | †aska Petera †atwa yawa k <sup>h</sup> upa t <sup>h</sup> awn |  |
| 09:21                                                                                                  | found bones in the house                                      |  |
| 09:25                                                                                                  | †aska Peter bon k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka haws                  |  |
| 09:27                                                                                                  | when it came, somebody said                                   |  |
| 09:30                                                                                                  | †aska Petera k <sup>h</sup> li, †aksta yaka wawa              |  |
| 09:33                                                                                                  | whale was found                                               |  |
| 09:36                                                                                                  | †aska Petera samən †aska iskam                                |  |

|                                                 |                                                                                                                                   |  |
|-------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: his sister gave him a knife and said to him |                                                                                                                                   |  |
| JP: ukuk09:42yaxka                      | yaka ats palach yaka uptsax <<pi>> yaka wawa k <sup>h</sup> upaJoe Peter                                                      |  |
| JM: 46                                          | n, a whole Marbeen found                                                                                                          |  |
| JP: 4909:49                                 | ori/ kuli yawa <<...>> hayash samən taska iskamJoe Peter                                                                      |  |
| JM: 54                                          | The bird John Mar came to the beach                                                                                               |  |
| JP: 09:5609:56                              | ukuk kəlakəla yaka <tax/tatw(a)>/ kuli yawa k <sup>h</sup> upaJoe Peter<<ukuk/mamuk>> saya k <sup>h</sup> upa hayash-chək |  |
| JM: 01                                          | He met John Mar the people                                                                                                        |  |
| JP: 0310:03                                 | ka tax Peter mə?ux>>/ ixt tilixamJoe Peter                                                                                    |  |
| JM: 06                                          | Speaking John Mar he asked                                                                                                        |  |
| JP: 0810:08                                 | ka wawa PeterJoe Peter                                                                                                        |  |
| JM: 10                                          | Where John Mar male?                                                                                                              |  |
| JP: 1310:13                                 | ka/ q <sup>h</sup> John Mar hayash samən?Joe Peter                                                                            |  |
| JM: 15                                          | Only a skeleton Mar layed there                                                                                                   |  |
| JP: 1710:17                                 | pit John Peter yaka mi taxt k <sup>h</sup> upáJoe Peter                                                                       |  |
| JM: 20                                          | He kicked the skull and left it                                                                                                   |  |
| JP: 10:2210:22                              | yaka iskam ukuk yaka/ miməlust yaka latet yakaJoe Peter<<lulu/lu?lu?>>                                                    |  |
| JM: 27                                          | He went some distance and met other people                                                                                        |  |
| JP: 3010:30                                 | ka kuli Peter tənəs-saya pi yaka taxtwa xluyma tilixamJoe Peter                                                               |  |
| JM: 35                                          | He should John Mar                                                                                                                |  |
| JP: 3710:37                                 | ka kuli Peter hayashJoe Peter                                                                                                 |  |
| JM: 39                                          | Only skeleton Mar there                                                                                                           |  |
| JP: 4110:41                                 | pit John Peter bon-miməlust-tilixam mi taxt k <sup>h</sup> upáJoe Peter                                                       |  |
| JM: 44                                          | Several John Mar tracked this way towards the people                                                                              |  |

|                                                                                                          |                                           |                                                  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| JP: q'hənchi yaka hayu-mamuk kakwa <<k'oʔ/kʰupa>> kʰupá                                                  |                                           |                                                  |
| JM:51                                                                                                    | When he arrived                           | John Marr large log                              |
| JP: <<mayka>> mamuk <<k'oʔ> kʰupá ukuk hayash stik10:53 Joe Peter<<mamuk kəmtəks ukuk>>          |                                           |                                                  |
| JM:58                                                                                                    | the bark was                              | Mary thick                                       |
| JP:00                                                                                                    | uk/ <ə/ Peter>                            | > yaka skin dret hayash                          |
| JM:04                                                                                                    | Here was                                  | John Marr of people who peeled off the bark      |
| JP:07                                                                                                    | ay tija Peter                             | ska munk-ʔaq-ʔaq ukuk yaka skin                  |
| JM:11                                                                                                    | the bird                                  | John Marr                                        |
| JP:13                                                                                                    | uk kə Peter                               | ʔak-ʔet yaka kʰriye                              |
| JM:15                                                                                                    | ly sket Marr                              | John Marr there                                  |
| JP:16                                                                                                    | pit uk Peter                              | yaka bon miməlust-tilixam miʔayt kʰupá           |
| JM:20                                                                                                    | the bark was                              | Marr of pitch                                    |
| JP:4811:22<<uh/ya>>                                                                              | uk/ Joe PeterJoe Peterpʰatt-lakum | hayash stik yaka skin kʰupit-kʰanawi             |
| JM:29                                                                                                    | the pees                                  | John Marr pieces                                 |
| JP:31                                                                                                    | yaka marr Peter                           | ʔaq makwst                                       |
| JM:32                                                                                                    | carried                                   | John Marr on his shoulder and went home          |
| JP: yaka lulu ʔas<ka> kʰupa yaka shoulder yaka lulu hom, yaka lulu11:35 Joe Peterkʰupa yaka haws |                                           |                                                  |
| JM:40                                                                                                    | thought                                   | John Marr                                        |
| JP:41                                                                                                    | yaka tə Peter                             | John Marr                                        |
| JM:42                                                                                                    | really John Marr                          | John Marr it is a whale                          |
| JP: nayka <kə>/ dilet kəmtəks ya təmtəm alta ya wawa uk hayash11:45 Joe Petersamən miʔayt        |                                           |                                                  |
| JM:50                                                                                                    | When he arrived                           | John Marr he put down the bark outside the house |

|                                                                                                  |                |                                                                                                                      |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JP: yaka q'u? k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka haws yaka mash ukuk yaka skin ya/stik-skin yawa ɬaxani |                |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:00                                                                                           | John Marr      |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:01                                                                                           | Joe Peter      | yaka ats                                                                                                             |
| J12:03                                                                                           | John Marr      | thought a whale                                                                                                      |
| J12:05                                                                                           | Joe Peter      | ukuk yaka hayash samən                                                                                               |
| J12:07                                                                                           | John Marr      |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:09                                                                                           | Joe Peter      | yakwa>> lakum-stik yaka skin                                                                                         |
| J12:12                                                                                           | John Marr      |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:13                                                                                           | Joe Peter      | yaka hayash samən yaka itwəli                                                                                        |
| J12:16                                                                                           | John Marr      | you think it's bark?                                                                                                 |
| J12:18                                                                                           | Joe Peter      | təmtəm ukuk yaka stik-skin                                                                                           |
| J12:21                                                                                           | John Marr      | one cut and two cuts of whale lay on the ground                                                                      |
| J12:25                                                                                           | Joe Peter      | yaka ats yaka ɬatwa ɬaxani yaka nanich ukuk makwst<ɬq'up-ɬq'up> k <sup>h</sup> upa hayash samən yaka <skin> yawa |
| J12:32                                                                                           | John Marr      |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:34                                                                                           | Joe Peter      | ukuk hayash samən yakwa                                                                                              |
| J12:37                                                                                           | John Marr      |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:38                                                                                           | Joe Peter      |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:40                                                                                           | John Marr      | when the bird looked and there lay a whale on the beach                                                              |
| J12:45                                                                                           | Joe Peter      | yaka nanich ukuk kəlákələ yaka nanich hayash samən yawamiɬayt                                                    |
| J12:50                                                                                           | John Marr      |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:51                                                                                           | Joe Peter      |                                                                                                                      |
| J12:52                                                                                           | John Marr      | carrying bark on his back                                                                                            |
| J12:53                                                                                           |                |                                                                                                                      |
| JP: yaka                                                                                         | <ya> nanich uk | tilixam lulu skin-stik k <sup>h</sup> upa <yaka>                                                                     |

|                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                  |                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| shoulder yawa                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                  |                                                                |
| JP: 0113:01                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | nothing but a skeleton lay there                               |
| JP: yaka13:05yaka bons                                                                                                                | k <sup>h</sup> riye <pi> hilu-ikta k <sup>h</sup> upit <uk tilix>/ miməlust-tilixamJoe Peter |                                                                |
| JP: 1013:10                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | he took that piece of bark and carried it home on his shoulder |
| JP: yaka13:14haws                                                                                                                     | lulu-iskam ukuk wəxt ʔq'up-skin-stik yaka lulu k <sup>h</sup> upa yakaJoe Peter              |                                                                |
| JP: 1913:19                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | is he god of the ghosts                                        |
| JP: kakwa yaka mamuk <<mamuk mək <sup>h</sup> mək>> ukuk13:23<<anqati/alta>> miməlust-tilixam yaka lulu ʔatwa k <sup>h</sup> upá      | Joe Peter                                                                                        |                                                                |
| JP: 2813:28                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | the corpse of time he had much whale meat                      |
| JP: aʔqi alta miməlust-aʔqi <alta/yaka> kənim hayu k <sup>h</sup> upit-ixt yaxka13:31yaka <<i-wəli k <sup>h</sup> upá hayu>>12:56 | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                           |                                                                |
| JP: 3813:38                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | now he continued to stay there                                 |
| JP: 4013:40                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | he yaka kənim k <sup>h</sup> upá kwansəm                       |
| JP: 4213:42                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | went to that town                                              |
| JP: 4513:45                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | he wəxt ʔatwa ukuk hayash t <sup>h</sup> awn/ o/ hayu haws     |
| JP: 4913:49                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | entered the house and took this child's skull                  |
| JP: yaka iskam k <sup>h</sup> upa ixt/ ʔatwa k <sup>h</sup> upa ixt haws, yawa yaka iskam13:53ukuk tənəs yaka latet                   | Joe Peter                                                                                        |                                                                |
| JP: 0014:00                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | which he put on a large skeleton                               |
| JP: yaka mamuk miʔayt k <sup>h</sup> upa hayash bons/ mimelust tilixam yaka14:03bons                                                  | Joe Peter                                                                                        |                                                                |
| JP: 0714:07                                                                                                                    | Joe PeterJoe Peter                                                                | took the skull and he put on a child's skeleton                |
| JP: yaka iskam hayash tilixam yaka latet pi <yaka mamuk-miʔayt14:10yawa k <sup>h</sup> upa miməlust-tənəs tilixam yaka> latet         | Joe Peter                                                                                        |                                                                |

|                                               |                                                                                                                 |  |
|-----------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| JM: this he did to all the people             |                                                                                                                 |  |
| JP: 1:1814:23Joe Petertilixam     | kwa yaka mamuk <<k <sup>h</sup> upa>> k <sup>h</sup> anawi ukuk tilixam                                         |  |
| JM: 21John Mark                           | When it grew Mark the child rose to speak                                                                       |  |
| JP: 14:25Joe Peterhayu-wawa           | q <sup>h</sup> ench'i yaka chaku pulak <sup>h</sup> li ukuk tēnas yaka mash k <sup>h</sup> upa-ukuk             |  |
| JM: 34John Mark                           | wanted to Marp                                                                                                  |  |
| JP: 35Joe Peter                           | yaka tilikōm Playr                                                                                              |  |
| JM: 37John Mark                           | it fell down again because it's head pulled it down                                                             |  |
| JP: 42Joe Peter                           | yaka t <sup>h</sup> uk ukuk pus yaka latit mamuk-hal yaxka ikta                                                 |  |
| JM: 47John Mark                           | the old man was                                                                                                 |  |
| JP: 48Joe Peter                           | uk ul <sup>h</sup> an yaka mi <sup>h</sup> ayt                                                                  |  |
| JM: 51John Mark                           | its head was tight                                                                                              |  |
| JP: 53Joe Peter                           | yaka latit <Pebat/wax... xum>                                                                                   |  |
| JM: 56John Mark                           | the next morning they replaced the head                                                                         |  |
| JP: 61Joe Peter                           | ukuk yaka Peteran <yaka mamuk>-mi <sup>h</sup> ayt k'ilapay uk latet                                            |  |
| JM: 66John Mark                           | metingus he said this to the legs of the ghost                                                                  |  |
| JP: 15:09Joe Petertilixam kwansəm     | kakupus <uk>/ kakupus yaka mamuk <mamuk> miməlust                                                               |  |
| JM: 14John Mark                           | he gave them legs to <tall> people                                                                              |  |
| JP: 15:17Joe Petertilixam             | yaka pa <sup>h</sup> lach...yaka pa <sup>h</sup> lach ukuk hayash lip <sup>h</sup> yi k <sup>h</sup> upa hayash |  |
| JM: 23John Mark                           | and large legs to a small child                                                                                 |  |
| JP: 25Joe Peter                           | hayu <sup>h</sup> lip <sup>h</sup> yi k <sup>h</sup> upa <tənás-tənás>                                          |  |
| JM: 29John Mark                           | metingus he exchanged a man's and a woman's legs                                                                |  |
| JP: 15:33Joe Peterlip <sup>h</sup> yi | ixt-ixt pus yaka mamuk... mamuk xluyma ukuk tuchmən yaka                                                        |  |

|                                                     |           |                                                                                 |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: in the course of time they began to dislike him |           |                                                                                 |
| JP: 4315:43                                     | Joe Peter | uk al <sup>h</sup> at tənəs-yaxka tənəs-lili alta uk tilixam wik-tiki yaxka |
| JM: 5015:50                                     | John Marr | He said go home they said                                                       |
| JP: 5116:01                                     | Joe Peter | Ita tashka wawa tuchmən ya tətwa-haws alta                                      |
| JM: 0416:04                                     | John Marr | What is your brother-in-law said to his sister                                  |
| JP: 0916:09                                     | Joe Peter | kakwə <sup>h</sup> ka wawa yaka aw k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka ats>                 |
| JM: 1216:12                                     | John Marr | the morning he awoke early                                                      |
| JP: 1616:15tənəs-san                        | Joe Peter | <ukuk wəxt/ixt> tənəs-san .... <yaka/mayka>....mayka mi <sup>h</sup> ayt        |
| JM: 2016:20                                     | John Marr | she held a skull in her arms                                                    |
| JP: 2616:26                                     | Joe Peter | Ita uk <sup>h</sup> ka <sup>h</sup> ats yaka <... k <sup>h</sup> upa yaka ...>  |
| JM: 3016:30                                     | John Marr | they                                                                            |
| JP: 3416:34                                     | Joe Peter | yaka m <sup>h</sup> ash yawa                                                    |
| JM: 3616:36                                     | John Marr | why did you hold that old skull again                                           |
| JP: 3816:35latet                            | Joe Peter | q <sup>h</sup> ata <mamuk ukuk> mayka iskam ukuk miməlust tilixam yaka          |
| JM: 3916:39                                     | John Marr | you broke your brother-in-law's neck                                            |
| JP: 4216:42                                     | Joe Peter | mayka m <sup>h</sup> ash <kakshət/kashin> ukuk mayka aw yaka liku               |
| JM: 4516:45                                     | John Marr | grew dark                                                                       |
| JP: 4716:47                                     | Joe Peter | Ita ch <sup>h</sup> ak <sup>h</sup> p <sup>h</sup> ak <sup>h</sup> li           |
| JM: 4816:48                                     | John Marr | now his brother-in-law was sick                                                 |
| JP: 5116:51                                     | Joe Peter | Ita yaka m <sup>h</sup> ash ka hayash sik                                       |
| JM: 5316:53                                     | John Marr | he wanted to cure himself                                                       |
| JP: 5616:56                                     | Joe Peter | Ita kupu <sup>h</sup> ka yaka tiki mamuk tush ya<x>ka                           |
| JM: 5916:59                                     | John Marr | he became ill again                                                             |
| JP: 0117:01                                     | Joe Peter | Ita ch <sup>h</sup> ak <sup>h</sup> p <sup>h</sup> ak <sup>h</sup> li           |

|                           |           |                                                                      |
|---------------------------|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JM: now the boy went home |           |                                                                      |
| JP: 05                    | Joe Peter | alta ukuk ukuk k'hupá yaka t'atwa k'hupa yaka haws                   |
| JM: 08                    | John Marr | his sister gave him five buckets full of water                       |
| JP: 11                    | Joe Peter | yaka alpa Peter yaka k'it'en, qwinem ukuk, chæk...hmm chæk           |
| JM: 17                    | John Marr | and he told him                                                      |
| JP: 20                    | Joe Peter | awa k'up Betaxka                                                     |
| JM: 22                    | John Marr | take care                                                            |
| JP: 23                    | Joe Peter | yaka John Peter nich                                                 |
| JM: 24                    | John Marr | when you come to the burning prairies                                |
| JP: 26                    | Joe Peter | yaka John Peter k'hupa ukuk, alta, ukuk paya t'ush-ili?i             |
| JM: 34                    | John Marr | do not go until you come to the fourth prairie                       |
| JP: 37                    | Joe Peter | yaka John Peter wax pus mayka chaku ukuk {on} paya/ t'ush-ili?i      |
| JM: 43                    | John Marr | Ben told me                                                          |
| JP: 44                    | Joe Peter | alta mayka John Peter ukuk mayka chæk k'hupá                         |
| JM: 47                    | John Marr | now he went                                                          |
| JP: 49                    | Joe Peter | alta yaka Joe Peter                                                  |
| JM: 51                    | John Marr | he reached the prairie                                               |
| JP: 52                    | Joe Peter | yaka q' John Peter ukuk hayash t'ush-ili?i                           |
| JM: 55                    | John Marr | was high                                                             |
| JP: 56                    | Joe Peter | yayash John Peter k'hupá                                             |
| JM: 00                    | John Marr | red flowers bloomed on the prairie                                   |
| JP: 18:07                 | Joe Peter | <...> ukuk ukuk ukuk p'hi t'səm <<q'ha yaka chaku s..>> chaku k'hupá |
| JM: 12                    | John Marr | they poured water on                                                 |
| JP: 17                    | Joe Peter | yaka John Peter wax... yaka mamuk-wax k'hupa ukuk chæk k'hupá        |
| JM: 22                    | John Marr | the of his bucket was half empty                                     |

|                                                               |           |                            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|----------------------------|
| JP: ukuk kit... ukuk ixt yaka kit tən wik...wik saya...katsaq |           |                            |
| JP: 31                                                        | Joe Peter | He leaves the woods        |
| JP: 34                                                        | Joe Peter | He goes to the house       |
| JP: 36                                                        | Joe Peter | He goes to another prairie |
| JP: 41                                                        | Joe Peter | He goes to the house       |
| JP: 48                                                        | Joe Peter | He goes to the house       |
| JP: 50                                                        | Joe Peter | He goes to the house       |
| JP: 52                                                        | Joe Peter | He goes to the house       |
| JP: 56                                                        | Joe Peter | He goes to the house       |

|       |           |
|-------|-----------|
| 18:24 | Joe Peter |
|-------|-----------|